HOLD RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE

Meeting of the Church Workers of State Universities at the University of Kansas.

The sixth annual conference of religious workers in state universities was held at the University of Kansas FOR RENT-Large front room in February 4.6. Rev. Dean R. Leland and Rev. Lawrence R. Harvard, the Presbyterian and Congregational university pastors and Rev. T. M. Shipherd, pastor of the First Congregational church were in attendance from Nebraska. They carried invitations for the next conference from Chancellor Avery, and from the Lincoln Ministers' Association but because of the fact that this year's conference was so far west the decision for next year was made in tayor of the university of Indiana.

Delegates were in attendance from Pennsylvania state college, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, North Dakota, Minnesota, Ames and the state university from Iowa, Texas, Oklahoma, and Missouri, as well as Nebrask a and Kansas.

Mr. Shipherd, Mr. Leland and Mr. Howard all had parts on the program and Mr. Leland was chosen president for the ensuing year. Mr. Shipherd was vice president this year and member of several important committees.

COMING

New Fortnightly Student Publication Coming.-First Issue.

Located in their sumptuous suite of offices at the east end of the corridor on the second floor of the University Hall the staff of "awgwan," the new student publication is creating quite * a circulation in the surrounding atmosphere. With the swishing of the paste brush and the click of typewriters the work of preparing thefirst issue goes merrily forward.

Our reporter after repeated attempts to scale the steel wall which guards their sanctum sanctorum finally secured an interview with the office boy.

"Oh. der gettin scared," he said, "det knows dey'll get cain when dat first issue comes out, believe me it's goin' to be a live one."

"Are they going to publish jokes on the faculty members?" we asked. He looked at us quizically.

"Se dat steel fence?" he remarked, "well, its braced from behind. And der's a fire escape leadin' from de window."

"But you haven't answered our question. " we said as he star through the ouce door.

"Aw, 'gwan," was all that he answered

DISAPPOINTED VISITORS.

What is known in orthodox newspaper talk as a persistent rumor was abroad on the campus yesterday. This rumor was to the effect that there were five typewriters at work in the Rag office. There was general disappointment in some quarters when it became known that the typewriters in question are neither blond nor brunette, but just machines, and our office has not been cluttered up by so many visitors today. The typewritters are beauties notwithstanding, and if only they could spell as correctly as they can write legibly, some more of our troubles would be at an end.
