The Forum

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 19, 191. To the Daily Nebraskan. Fellow Students: I wish to express my appreciation to the student body and to the athletic board in particular, of the honor they have conferred upon me by appointing me captain of the 1913 cross-country team. I consider it an honor to be recognized in this capacity but above all I feel that through the confidence of my fellow students and the athletic board, it has been made possible for me to work just a little harder for the success of this branch of Nebraska athletics. We have some very good material for the team next fall and with a season of careful training Nebraska should be able to turn out a team worthy of the name. I shall endeavor to show my appreciation by hard work, in bringing this about. Yours truly

J. L. McMASTER.

Maude Adams is the favorite actress of the Yale senior class by a margin of forty-nine votes. Billie Burke won second place. E. H. Sothorn was easily the favorite actor. Lincoln beat out Napoleon as the favorite character of history, Jean Valjean was nominated the favorite character in fiction and "Ivanhoe" the favorite novel. "Crossing the Bar" was voted the favorite poem and beer the favorite drink. Dickens was chosen the favorite novelist and tennis won the contest for the favorite sport.—Ex.

The students of the department of physical education department are preparing an exhibition of their work to be given soon. No date has, as yet, been set.

"Brownie, do you expect to keep on shaving people when you get to heaven?" asked a customer, as the towels were flirited off.

"Deed I dunno, boss. I 'spects, ef I does, I'll be obliged to drum up a new bunch of customers."—Judge.

Syracuse Daily Orange: The attempt to revive football at Columbia, where it was abolished by faculty edict in 1905, has again failed. The attitude of the faculty members prominent in the abolition of this sport is practically unchanged.

"Those Ensign Cabs"

They watch and wait for its coming
As it silently speeds to it call.
The sorority fair maids are all humming
At the pleasure in store for them all.
For the carriage ride to the hop at night
Is a token of a jolly good fellow.
The Ensign cab is her delight,
As it rides like a feather pillow
Now well know all the scholars
The prompt attention they receive
It don't take a million dollars
To attend a ball in comfort and ease.
