

WISCONSIN PAPERS WORRY

May Lose Control of Student Publications.—Faculty Interest Committee Active.

Wisconsin newspaperdom is trembling in its shoes at the thought of faculty control of their publications. The very thought has aroused a nest of bees in student sentiment, and all are shouting freedom of speech and freedom of the press. If the faculty adopt the recommendation of the faculty-interest committee, for a board of control of student publications, only those publications which are sanctioned by a committee of four faculty and four student members will be permitted to exist and those chosen few will be under absolutely control of the faculty. This system of control has been in practice at Nebraska for some time and has been found very successful, only a comparatively few instances of trouble having arisen.

TRACK MEN PREPARE FOR MEET

Kansas City Run Next Saturday Night Makes the Squad Work Hard.

Track men have been working out consistently this week in spite of the adverse weather conditions, preparing for the big meet at Kansas City Saturday night.

Racely, Beaver, Clark, and Zumwinkle have been selected as the men to make the trip, and they expect to show the men from the southland that we have runners as well as football men.

If Nebraska wins the relay race against Oklahoma they run the winners of the other relays.

Basketball.

The basketball team is preparing for the most strenuous series of the year when they meet the fast team from the Iowa State Agricultural School. Although Nebraska has been victorious in two previous contests they are not over confident as the class of Ames is recognized.

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet will hold their meeting at 6:15 tonight.

Whereas, the grim Angel of Death has robbed us of our beloved friend and classmate, Miss Katheryn Yates;

Whereas, her untimely departure has left an unfilled breach in our class organization and a sorrowing memory in the hearts of her friends and fellow students;

Be It Resolved, That the Class of 1913, in appreciation of her untiring efforts as a loyal student, of her genial nature as a companion and of her matchless fidelity as a friend, submit to her parents and friends this resolution as an evidence of the highest regard and esteem we hold for her as our friend and classmate and the deep sorrow we feel at her sudden and untimely departure.

Be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her parents and another published in The Daily Nebraskan.
