Kansas had be found in the west, and his choos-Jayhawkers managed to outplay them, worked in vain. However they have not repeated that night's performance for two years and to represent the northern division of from indications they will not for Missouri Valley teams: some time.

In 1912, Kansas was not able to win a game from Nebraska although the scores were very even in most of the games. The two games which were played at Lawrence were both won by tain. the score of 26-30 in favor of Nebraska. The last two games were played at Lincoln. In the first of these, Kansas did not put up a very good fight and it was more or less of a walkaway for Nebraska. In the second one the Jayhawkers put up one of the scrappiest games possible and as a consequence the tenement dwellers barely nosed out a victory.

The games this year should be even better than last years were and the fact that Kansas is so confident of victory leads basketball authorities to believe that they will uncork something.
