WAR SCARE A HOAX

Rumely Engine Causes Visions of the Insurrection in Mexico

Vision of a Mexican revolution or a Balkan uprising yesterday started the nodding jaws from the lethargy of their 3 o'clock class. From across the campus from the southeast came the sound of a sharp rattle of rifle fire followed by heavy cannonading in the distance. Gradually the fire grew louder and the cannons roared in nearer proximity.

Rumors grew fast around the campus. "The road to Mexico" was the only answer. But up the street with Jimmie McGill at the wheel came plowing a Rumely oil pull engine, whose over supply of gasoline caused the celebration.

PROM PICTURE A MENACE

CORNHUSKERS PHOTOGRAPH OF COTILLION SHOWS TA-BOOD DANCES.

HAS BEEN WELL SECRETED

Prominent Society People Would Otherwise Have Standing Low Cred With Miss Ensign

The picture taken of the Junior Senior Prom, which was taken exclusively for the Cornhusker has caused considerable comment. Some one who saw the picture stated that some of the very latest dances were well illustrated there, and it was a surprise that it might be interpreted as evidence against a few individuals who people Miss Ensign's table in the picture. But after a careful glimpse of the picture given forth.

The "Itags" sleuth could neither induce the photographer to show the picture nor could he get any satisfaction from the Cornhusker staff, so that it seems fairly certain that the standing of the said society people is somewhat the best in the city. It is possible that the picture will be some surprise of the Cornhusker in 1934.

1913 YEARBOOK LOST

The 1913 Gopher, which has been the guidepost to the success of the 1933 Cornhusker, has mysteriously disappeared from the Cornhusker building. A library of many college libraries is maintained here, and the above mentioned is missing from the shelf. The Editor will appreciate the favor of the person who has this book will return it.
