When a man no longer has to work for a degree while he is getting his education, work will be its own reward.

To qualify for a ministerial city office a man must have attested efficiency and presumed honesty. With more than a score of candidates running for the city commission most of whom will receive bigger pay if they are elected than they ever received before, care must be had not to vote for too honest a candidate.

To succeed as a student, four things are necessary: intelligence, nerve, some money, and a few friends.

To succeed as a student, three things are not necessary: honors, diamonds and ice cream pants: honors, because they do not increase one's opportunities; diamonds, because they fascinate without attracting; ice cream pants because you can only afford one pair a year and they are no protection in cold weather.

Business meeting of Glee Club to night at 7:15 sharp at Temple.

According to a card received by Prof. Caldwell, Prof. C. Persinger who recently left for South America, passed through Panama but a short time ago. Here he stopped and inspected the canal with a young engineer. His next stop is to be at Callo which is a five and a half days' journey from Panama. This journey he makes by the steamer Guatemala. He will be heard from within the next month from Lima.

Is Not an April-Fool Joke
A mere advertisement, you say---yes, but a clever one, and a valuable offer just the same. But did you stop to think what is the meaning of this generosity? It means that it pays the mammoth merchant-tailoring house of Hart, Schaffner & Marx to establish these prices, because college men, the country over, wear Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes. What satisfies other college men will satisfy you.
