A. S. M. E. Tonight at 7:30 on "Relation Between Geology and Engineering.

Prof. E. H. Barbour of the Department of Geology has consented to talk to the student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the Mechanical Engineering Laboratories building.

In his talk this evening Professor Barbour will present the subject, "The Relation Between Geology and Engineering." Not only does he intend to discuss the necessity of the engineer having a special training in geology, but also he intends to spend some time in speaking of the engineer's social life. Not an engineer can afford to miss this meeting and a very large number are expected to hear Professor Barbour.
