DIVIDED RESPONSIBILITY.

One reason why university events go so far behind financially is because responsibility for their management is divided among too many. Dance committees of ten members, one of whom works, should be a mitigating circum stance when a chairman is being as sailed for inefficiency. So, too, the Innocent society does not start anything and rerely does it Faish it, * largely because no one can be held responsible for its doings. The Rag ♦ and Cornbusker staffs are similarly. * over burdened with honorary scribes Song Recital at the Temple by * who regard university work as dig nified and who are sustained in their * estimate of our activities by student Aria "Bear Love, Thine Aid" * sentiment generally. The machinery (From Samson and Deliah) * through which a collection of univer Homer * sity activities are expected to make * progress is far too bunglescene and Neinfinger * unwieldly. We must throw off the bal

Change in sentiment as to the pur-Schumann 🖈 pose of our activities must precede any real reform in the interest of efficiency. We must cease to regard our efforts as honers merely. They are ★ (From the Miller and the Brook) ★ in fact opportunities for those who want to work and can. And before we can strip our over-hurdered ma--hinery of its aignified and or eamental rash we must create in ourselves a sentiment that in college as in actual life efficiency is our motto.

Required Nerve on the Part of the Students---

It will require more nerve on your part to wear heavy underwear during these warm, enervating spring days. Better stock up on those cool, comfortable, loose fitting B. V. D's or Wilson "Klosed Krotch" Athletic Union Suits. It will mean better spirits, better work and more resistance to the spring fever germ.
