OUR PART IN CITY POLITCS.

Next Tuesday is election day Those ★ students who haven't elected to make * their home town their voting place * will be entitled to vote here. Whether they vote here or not, the faci is that * clerk as to the rights of the all a student's real interests save the * University students to vote source from which he derives his sup | * port are right here in Lincoln. Thereis as little reason for a qualified student to refuse or neglect to vote next Tuesday in the municipal election as there is for disqualifying students who gain their support elsewhere to vote in Lincoln. Lincoln practically lives off the rental she charges a student to keep body and soul to gether, and all the advantages of good city government in an economic and socially way are much I mefit to those who pay reut and live in the houses as to the landlord class of lects it. Every student of the University is a citizen of Lincol, materi ally interested in the government of the city

As it now is most of the in terest indents take in a numicipal election is an interest in the clerk ships of election e have watched politics in this town ever stace we have been here, and the number of students we have found carrying a candidate's eard at the polls for pay or clerking an election for a city clerk whom he helped elect last year is FOR SALE CHEAP Racycie wheel simply appalling when we take into consideration the general lack of interest felt by students in the issues of the city politics. It has been quite generally observed that about as many students work on election day as vote on election day.

day cannot be gainsaid. It usually pays enough for a week's living and excuses one from classes for a holiday on the streets. It is besides a very splendid diversion, and were it; coupled with an expression of civic interest such as a few more student votes, no fault could be found with FOUND-An umbrella. Call at the the practice of preferring the political y job. We are only making a prea for wider student participation not in the work of filling rather soft offices, but in the work of helping to pat a city in the hands of an intelligent and Delta Tau Delta Annual Banquet efficient government. The students

THE MEN YOU VOTE FOR?

In Tuesday's issue the Ne braskan will publish a story showing which of the candi & dates in the primaries held on * that day are college graduates * from the University or other * schools. The story will all e an swer numerous inquiries that * have been directed to the city
