

University Boys, Notice!

Beginning Tuesday, we are going to close out all our Summer Stock of Young Men's Suits at 20% Discount--getting ready to move into our New Building that is being erected for us, adjoining our present location, with a Complete New Stock of Fall and Winter Goods.

We will not carry any of this season's goods over into the new store---hence, the unprecedented thing of a 20% Discount Sale NOW, in the heart of the season, when you will most appreciate it. You've never bought, nor have we ever sold, better suits. Come now!

Sigs Deny Statement That They Wished '13 Annual Censored

Feeling that their motives were misunderstood in the matter of restraining the issue of the 1913 Cornhusker, the Sigma Chi's yesterday issued a statement denying that they wished the 1913 Year Book censored. It is true that at first they believed the joke concerning themselves a little caustic and perhaps uncalled for, but as for seeking to "hold up" the book on the strength of this, they did not intend to convey any such threat.

It may be said in justice to them that they can take a joke as well as anyone, and realize that such jokes are usually free from intended calumny. The joke in question, say the editors, is innocent of veiled malice.

inspiring and efficient class of men and the like of them in adaptability to our eccentric views on newspaper policy we expect to find nowhere else on earth. To them is due much that has seemed satisfactory in the Daily Nebraskan.

To the University community that has tolerated us we are thankful for our job. Of the many opportunities for service afforded us by the University, none have we so much appreciated as this editorship. By nothing is our curiosity for information so much gratified as to see the play of living forces against each other. And the center of interchange, the clearing house of University life, is the "Rag." While we have learned college life at the expense of some of the more valuable and more sterilized knowledge to be gained from books, still we shall never regret the investment and shall always be thankful to the student and faculty community for having endured so long and so patiently our rough and crass existence so close to college life's very hub.
