MUSIC DISPERSES FROSH

YOUNGSTERS CHARMED INTO VACANCY BY SOUND OF TOM-TOM OUTSIDE MEMORIAL HALL.

RALLY THEREFORE POSTPONED

With Olympics Close at Hand, No Organization Affected, and Frosh Show Apparent Lack of Pep.

The introduction of the incoming freshmen to the far-famed Nebraska spirit became a decided nonentity yesterday, when the ancient adage concerning the power of music to soothe the savage beast was illustrated. The freshman rally was advertised in the Nebraskan Wednesday as being scheduled for Thursday's convocation, and, perhaps as a result of the inadequacy of the notice, some two dozen of the class appeared in Memorial Hall prepared to represent to the uttermost the aforementioned savage beast.

At this moment, however, some miscreant with unknown designs took the liberty of disturbing the peace by hammering away violently on a bass drum just outside the door, and the resulting music so far soothed the breast of the aspiring neophytes that their wild enthusiasm which, though heretofore entirely pent up was doubtless present, was turned into a loathing disgust at the thought that a so-called "skin game" had been played on them by their superior classes. Without further notice the youngsters hid themselves meekly hence. In other words, they broke for the door and were lost in the thick woods between there and the campus gate.

With no definite class organizations as yet effected in either of the lower classes, no definite arrangements have been made for the coming Olympics. The freshmen, having been scheduled for their first rally yesterday in Memorial Hall, showed a very apparent lack of interest in the meeting, and it was thought advisable to postpone the rally until next Tuesday. On that day the freshmen will be addressed by prominent alumni and representative seniors, on subjects pertaining to university life and spirit, and to individual success.

The interclass Olympics is the annual clash between the two lower

THERE IS STILL TIME — BUT

THE [SYSTEM]

College and High School Week

ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT

YOU older young men should come in and get fitted out and join the happy family. You are probably keenly interested in cleverly styled clothes, but business has made it impossible for you to attend the exhibition which has been going on here for the last week.

NOW if you are going to learn just how suitable an L SYSTEM Style is to your personality, and if you want to see how real, live, stunning clothes are tailored you have got to visit our shop tomorrow.

This exhibition week has been such a success that we hate to see it end, but end it must. We can't tell you that after it is over you'll not be able to secure THE L SYSTEM Clothes, but take this little tip from us: "The wise boys" — the fellows who have a reputation for dressing smartly, and well, are not going to let this week slip by without owning an L SYSTEM Suit.
