SCRIMMAGE

JOY IN CAMP OVER RETURN OF ROSS, LEFT GUARD.

WASHBURN'S STRENGTH MYSTERY

First Game of Season Saturday Promises to Be Stiff.

The Cornhuskers football stalwart put in a hard practice yesterday aft ernoon at the State Farm. With grati fying results. The exercises ranged from a to izzard, from elementary football to a twenty-minute scrimmage with the freshmen. And the sunny, shinning, scintilating outcome was due to the fact that no more cripples were added to the overburdened hospital list, and that that line of ours looks more and more like a winner.

Clint Ross, Lineman, Back In Moleskins.

Another cause of joy was the ap pearance of Clint Ross in his old stamping ground, left guard. Ross was a tower of strength in last year's mighty machine. His two hundred pounds will bolster up the line in great shape.

Stiehm, the wonder worker, is put ting the squad through its stiffest paces. They are on the jump from start to finish. The W. W. played both Beck and Towle at the executive job With Towle at quarter, Beck holds down left end. And with Beck in command, Heward moves from full back to left end, Coffee working at Varsity Scores Two Touchdowns.

The varsity-freshman scrimmage was snappy and fast. The cornhusker team, while kicking a good deal of the time, found time to walk through the freshmen for two touchdowns. The line is gradually smoothing off per, Roscoe Aldritt, James B. Marshall, the rough corners and at times was able to rip great holes in the freshmen defense.

It is a joy to watch that back field plunge through the line and romp around the wings. Purdy and Rutherford make a great brace of ground gainers. Both Howard and Coffee are playing a fine game at full back. As are also Beck and Towle at quarter.

Washburn's Strength Unknown. With the Washburn game but three days off, little is known of the strength of the team from Topeka. The Congregational lads have it on us as far as practice is concerned, for Washburn started a couple of weeks sooner than the University. The Cornhuskers are not looking for a snap and probably would be very much surprised if they did. Washburn can be counted on to put up a stiff game. Washburn has an occasional habit of besting Kansas and Missouri. The game promises to be well worth the seeing.

The line up for the first game is * There shall be no soliciting of * problematical. Rutherford and Purdy are fixtures at the halves. Howard will probably start at full and Towle at quarter. Erwin at center, Shields and Halligan at tackles, Ross at left guard, Mastin and Beck at ends will + undoubtedly fill the line up, leaving one guard to be accounted for.

YESTERDAY THOSE RED TAGS---HELP YOUR FEM-FRIENDS TODAY

Thirty-five Cents Each - Proceeds Mandolin Club Also Begins Year's Take Care of Sick Co-eds.

What is it? It's tag day. T'wont be long and you'll see. The tags are red and every young woman is supposed to have one. The only consideration is a payment of 35 cents which is for a purpose that will be of great there had never been a more promisbenefit to young ladies in school who take sick and are not able to take care of themselves.

This University Girl's Club is now six years old and had a membership of four hundred last year but by this evening Miss Graham expects to have developed the number to six hundred.

The Tags Are Red.

A big luncheon feature is being prepared to take place on October 18th This affair is to be similar to the Cornhusker banquet held for the young men each year.

After the University removal question has been decided the club hopes to be able to interest the state legislature in the question a women's building, such as is found at most of the large universities.

The red tags may be secured in the library from young ladies of the Black Mask, in University hall from members of the Silver Serpent, on the campus from members of the Girds Club and also at the office of at once to put the men in shape for Miss Graham in the Temple. Don't an early concert. Tryouts will be forget, there're red.

GLEE CLUB MEMBERS SELECTED BY COMPETITION

Work with Election.

Glee Club tryouts were held last night in teh Temple music hall. Between fifty and sixty men competed for places, and in the judgment of some of the older men of the club ing group of singers. The judges were Professors Roseborough, Scott, Mills, Carter, Miller, and Percy Janes. The successful members will be notified by phone before the end of the week and public announcement of the results will follow later.

At a meeting of the club held Monday night its organization was perfected, and the plans for the year were briefly outlined by Paul Griswold, president of the club. The coming trips to Denver and Omaha were discussed, most of the members thinking it advisable to visit the latter city as soon as the two clubs were in shape. Plans were also laid for a dance to be held in the near future.

Mandolin Club.

At the first meeting of the Mandolin Club held last evening W. C. Kayan was elected manager of the musicians for the coming year, and he will start the Temple music hall. All who can play the mandolin, mandola, guitar, or banjo should appear at this time. A president and director will be selected at the meeting. All old members are requested to bring their instruments for first practice on Tues day.

ARE IN NEED OF ACTORS

SPHARO STYX OPENS COMPETI-TION FOR PLACES IN CAST OF MINSTREL SHOW.

PLACES NUMBER OVER SIXTY

Both Girls and Men Wanted-Many Very Desirable Positions Open.

Spharo Styx, the organization of University men which came into existence last spring with the purpose of staging a high class minstrel and novelty show early this fall, will hold an elimination competition a week from next Saturday, October 11, according to a advice given out yesterday to the Daily Nebraskan. Impartial judges will preside and all uni versity men and women are eligible to the cast.

All contestants are urged to use either of the two librettos furnished by the management and which may be obtained from the Daily Nebraskan after Saturday morning. These will be of such a nature that any one can take the parts and will help the judges to decide as to the comparative ability of the contestants. However, if anyone desires to use any other part or playlet which he may already have used they will not be barred from competition. As there are a number of parts requiring vocal ability those who can sing are especially urged held Tuesday, October 7, at 7 p. m. in to make an attempt at the first tryouts. An opportunity will be given later for those who wish to take singing parts alone.

> About twenty five girls and thirty men will be necessary for the show. The affair is expected to appear about the first of December and preparations have been going on ever since the early part of May. Manuscripts, songs and specialties are written by University men and Prof. J. T. Prince of the Conservatory of Music is in charge of working the show into proper shape. Prince is well known all over the west for his dramatic coaching although this will be his first venture with a University production. Those who have seen the general plan and read the manuscripts are very enthusiastic in their approval of its spice and novelty.

> This is the first attempt ever made to bring out novelty production and it promises to be one of the most popular of the University dramatic entertainments. The co-eds are especially asked to enter the tryouts as there will be as many important women's parts in the show as are arranged for the men.

All Engineers Out Tonight.
