KANSAS GETS THE FEVER.

The following editorial comment, clipped from the Daily Kansan, shows the spirit which is being formed at Lawrence, looking forward to the Nebraska game.

BEAT NEBRASKA

Kansas has a wonderful chance this year to step into the "big nine" class by defeating Nebraska.

We can do it, too, if we just think so.
According to Coach Mosse, we have the best material since 1896, and the roxy old Englishman knows what he is talking about. Coach Frank says the Kansas team found itself Saturday.

The rest, then, lies with the students. Spirit will do the work, and everything is in our favor. The game will be here; "pop" can be worked up; concerted rooting, encouragement, and an every man back-of-the-team attitude are what we want.

Let us not mope on this mental tele-pathic stuff, but if every student in this university gets back of the team and pulls hard enough, we're going to beat Nebraska here November 15. It's just a matter of spirit—Kansas Spirit.— University Daily Kansan.

AMUSEMENTS

It is often said of prominent stage personages, some of them "stars," that "they are the same in everything." There is altogether too much truth in the statement, and it is not to be wondered at that a waning popularity is the penalty for season after season of performances that are little more than dramatic stencils. The pattern, cut years ago, has remained unchanged and unimproved until its variations are almost as well known to the playgoer as to the player himself. Mrs.
Fiske, who is to appear at the Oliver Friday evening, in her Edward Sheldon play, "The High Road," is one stage figure against whom no such an indictment can ever lie. She has the true gift of characterization, and even were she to appear in several different roles which in the author's drawing were similar, she, by various illuminating touches of her genius, would make of each a separate and distinct picture. In her new role, Mrs. Fiske is said to be provided with manifold opportunities for the display of her rich and ripened art.

The Nebraska-Minnesota game in moving pictures taken by a local photographer is attracting attention from the students at the Magnet Theater, 1511 O street. A thousand-foot film shows the mammoth crowd, the University band, the cheering stands and their leaders, the entrance of the two teams, the crowd itself in panorama, and ends with a running view of the game. The third quarter, in which the Cornhuskers scored, was fortunately given prominence by the photographer. The rapid series of the three forward passes ending with Beck going over the Gopfer goal line for the one and only touchdown of the game, is clearly depicted in the pictures. The picture will be shown this afternoon and evening only.

MERMAIDS ARE CHILLED BY DECISION TO LIMIT HOURS

Y. M. C. A. Eliminates Thursday Morning Classes from Schedule.

The officials of the city Y. M. C. A. swimming pool have notified the directors of the physical department that the coeds can have the use of the pool only on Thursday mornings. Permission for both Tuesday and Thursday mornings had been granted at first and this later restriction comes as a dose of cold water to the aspiring mermaids.

Many of the girls who had signed on the schedule first posted have been obliged to take their names from the list. However, thirteen have registered for Tuesdays, and if forty-five have signed by the end of this week the opportunity to swim will be assured for this semester at least.

The Cafeteria of the Y. M. C. A.

There must be some regard given to the surroundings in the choice of a boarding house, if one would get the most good from his meals. A poorly ventilated room is not a fit room.
The Cafeteria is located in a room well lighted and ventilated.
The University authorities have freshly painted the walls and refinished the floor. This is a good place for hundreds, why not for you?
