under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1913.

The seniors furnish the latest in the field of novel advertising. Their placcard announcing the first class meeting bore the interesting statement that "Election Debts" would be up for consideration. Other classes, take heed.
Let not the upperclassmen furnish all the excitement.

On with the dance, but— you tango fiends—recall that every university in the middle west is taking up the question of the propriety of this particular dance. And in nearly every case the decision is going against the tango.
Disregarding the question of the merits of the tango, it is up for a severe bluepencilling among the educational institutions, and Nebraska has it on the grill now.

INVITATIONS BEING SENT ALUMNI TO GO TO GAMES

Letters Now in Mailing—Headquarters Will Be Established.

The new alumni secretary, Guy Reed, is sending out letters to Nebraska alumni in Iowa asking them to go to the game at Ames the 8th of November. Headquarters will be established and preparations made to entertain the large number who are expected.

For the K. U. game invitations are being mailed to all old men in the neighboring states, comprising a large part of Nebraska's alumni. Headquarters will be set up in Lawrence for this occasion and an attempt made to give an exhibition of real Cornhusker spirit.

Nine Gain Admission to The Dramatic Club
Another Trial Given

The footlights of the Temple Theater were in full blaze last night. They cast their bright and illuring light upon twenty-five hopeful and aspiring actors, who were trying out for admission to the Dramatic Club. Parts from Shakespeare to Salvation Nell were used. Of the twenty-five contestants, nine were successful, meeting the severe requirements of the club.

A good many of those who did not pass this first test will be given another trial. In the case of most of these it was thought that the parts used did not suit their individual ability. They are requested to see Miss Alice Howell.

Following are the success-ful ones Morris Clark, Ford Bates, Charles Epperson, Niel Brown, Wilson Delzell, Leon Snyder, Elma Reeder, Clara Fate, Hally Workman.

In Other Days

1901
A "rooters" club" has been organized at Nebraska. Between fifty and sixty persons, representatives of the different fraternities and literary societies and other interested parties, were present and founded a permanent organization.

1907
The Chicago Record-Herald says that Nebraska is football wild. As an explanation, the paper further states that football enthusiasm at the University of Nebraska has been raised to the highest pitch at has reached for several years as the result of the game with Minnesota.

1908
Nebraska defeats the Haskell Indians by a score of 10-0.

Acting in accordance with the wishes of Chancellor Andrews, as expressed some time ago, an effort will be made to have class rivalry between the freshman and sophomore classes settled in either a pushball or football contest.

1911
Nebraska loses a hard game to the Gophers at Minneapolis. Score, 21-3.

School of Ag. vs. Temple High.
The first game of the season for the School of Agriculture eleven will be played with the Temple High School at the Farm today at 4 o'clock. The School of Agriculture team has been under the supervision of Coach Claybaugh, several members arriving for practice a week or two before the school began. The game promises to be a good one.
