Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN STARTED

Two Teams, Led by Bixby and Robbins, Working for Members of Addition to Association.

The Y. W. C. A. membership campaign begins next Thursday at 8 a. m. and closes the following Wednesday at 6 p. m.

Lorena Bixby is in charge of the whole campaign. Two leaders with their representative captains will go into the remotest corners of the university in search of those who have not as yet joined the association. Mary Rokahr is leader on one side. She and her captains as well as those who join her side will wear blue ribbons. Elyth Robbins, the leader of the other side, will use gold ribbons. You can get your colors at the Y. W. C. A. association rooms.

The losing side will entertain the winning side early in December.

MEXICAN SITUATION ARISES

Phi Alpha Tau Discusses Fate of Rebellious Republic at Initial Meeting—Members Dine at Lincoln

"The Mexican Situation" was again reviewed at the initial dinner of Phi Tau, the honorary public speaking fraternity, last night. This was the first meeting of the year, and the members met for an informal dinner and discussion at the Lincoln.

After the discussion on this subject—for it is the custom of the fraternity to take up some topic of general interest at each meeting—a short business session was held, presided over by C. A. Sorenson, president of the society.

Jones' Orchestra, L-9666.
