Arrangements have been made by Manager Guy Reed for 350 reserved seats at the Nebraska-Kansas game at Lawrence to accommodate the business men who go from Lincoln. The tickets will be left at the Commercial club the latter part of this week and may be obtained there by all who intend to go.

A boosters' committee of thirty-four, announced in last Sunday's Star, has charge of the campaign for a large delegation to make the trip to Lawrence.

ORGANIZED AGRICULTURE WEEK

Valuable Prizes Offered During Week of Meetings and Shows, January 19-23.

There will be about $2,500 given to contestants at the various shows at Lincoln during the meetings of Organized Agriculture, January 19-23, 1914. At this time about twenty-five different agricultural associations hold their annual meetings and shows. There will be a horticultural show, a corn show, a home cured meat show, a domestic science show, and these will be for both juniors and seniors.

Great interest is being shown out in the state and many inquiries are already being received for entry blanks. George W. Kline, U. of N., '00, is secretary with headquarters in the state house.

NOW FOR FAT STOCK TEAM

Conscientious efforts to Turn Out Winning Team Before November 29.

In the animal husbandry department at the State Farm, interest is now being centered in coaching and selecting a team to represent Nebraska in the judging contest at the international fat stock show which is to be held at Chicago November 29 to December 6.

A class of ten or twelve are working out each day, and while there is no shouting along the side lines the boys are putting forth every effort to make as creditable a showing as possible to uphold Nebraska's standard.

Last Saturday the class judged nine classes of stock, including two classes of horses belonging to Watson, Woods Bros. & Kelly Co. A week ago Saturday the class visited Omaha, judging the horses belonging to several business concerns.

It is planned to have the team start several days before the show begins in order that they may visit several stock farms. The contest will be on November 29, the first day of the show.

The demand for seats at the Harvard-Yale game to be played at New Haven on November 15 has already exceeded the seating capacity by approximately 10,000 applications. Next year will have a new concrete and steel bowl, which has a seating capacity of 60,000.

All Lovers of the Beautiful are invited to examine our Fine Assortment of Iverness Placques just received.
