H. H. Morris Speaks To Engineering Society On Power Development

At a meeting of the Engineering society Tuesday evening H. H. Norris spoke concerning the recent improvements of the power development of steam turbines, steam engines, and boiler plants as related to the produc tion of electricity. Mr. Norris is sec retary of the "Spee," a society for the promotion of engineering education, and associate editor of two leading engineering magazines. He is making a tour of the colleges of the central and western states for the purpose of bringing the members of the many societies into closer touch with one another.

Aniversity Notices

A regular meeting of the agricultural engineers will be held Thursday, December 4, in Mechanic Arts room 206. Talks by Prof. L. W. Chase and O. W. Sjogren. Meeting will be called at 7:45 sharp.

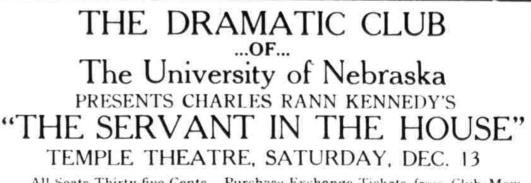

Don't miss the interesting 'talk by Professor Paul H. Grummann this evening at 7 o'clock in the Music hall of University Temple. The subject with which Professor Grummann will deal is "Side Lines in College Life," More men are attending each time, help increase the number.

COSTUMES NOT REQUIRED.

Announcement was made yesterday that costumes were permissible but not necessary in order to attend the Girl's club party Friday night, December 5, notwithstanding the rumor to that effect.

For the past thirteen years there have been more Michigan graduates elected to the United States senate than alumni of any other university in the country.
