M'GOWAN CLAIMS C. B. ROUGHS STOLE SIGMA ALPHA BULL DOG
 Saw Said Canine in Cross-River Town While Going Through But Could Not Recover It.

Claiming that he had been roughed by a number of men and boys in Council Bluffs when he tried to capture a dog belonging to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, W. I. McGowan called on Commissioner King Monday and asked him to try to recover the dog which had been stolen from the fraternity about two months ago. He claimed that a porter on a Burlington train had taken the animal to Council Bluffs and had sold it to a boy there.
 McGowan saw the dog following the boy and left the train to capture it.
 He secured the animal but the boy let out a yell and a lot of boys and men came to the lad's assistance and took the dog away. McGowan presented the dog to the fraternity and is very anxious to recover it.

Kearney Community Club Will Entertain
 Uni. There New Year

The Community club of Kearney has made arrangements to entertain as their guests about fifty college fellows during the first four days of the new year. The delegates will be selected from the various Nebraska colleges including the University of Nebraska. The mission of the college men will be to show the Kearney boys the benefits to be derived from a college education.

Christmas Joys Are Slightly Spoiled by Approaching Exams.

The student body is happy, the cause is that Christmas is coming, the holidays are at hand, the holidays that have been so anxiously awaited.
 The student is thinking of the good times that await him when he returns to the home fire, hence the campus wide smile. Every one is going at their duties with a vim and determination to get "caught up" before Christmas so that they will be able to enjoy the season to the greatest extent, not marred by thoughts and troubles of books and work.
 The vacation starts Monday morning at 8 o'clock, that is the official time of the university holidays, and ending officially Saturday, January 3 at noon.
 This will allow the student plenty of time in which to get acquainted with the home folks.

Immediately after the holidays are over the work in all departments will tighten up, the work to be covered before the semester will be taken care of and the instructors will put their students in readiness for the final test of scholarship, the semester exams.
 The last week of the semester will begin the 26th of January, the examinations will fall within that week with registration the 28th to the 31st, inclusive.

Nearly every instructor on the campus has advised the ones that are dangle on the edge to take advantage of the time in vacation to become at least on speaking terms with the subject in hand. This advice will more than likely be followed by those who prefer the dramatic eleventh hour finish to the steady grind. The Christmas holidays are well timed for the sluffer.

The advice of the faculty to the students is to have a good time at home during the holidays and return to school prepared for the best that they (the instructors) can give them.

ATHLETIC SOCIETY FOUNDED.

Sigma Delta Psi, an athletic fraternity, has been recently formed at Indiana University to encourage the physical development of college students. In accordance with its design of becoming the athletic counterpart of the academic honor societies the fraternity is about to install chapters in Yale, Stanford and other universities in addition to the following colleges already members: Minnesota, Maine, Indiana, Butler, Hanover, Wabash and Whitman.

Candidates for membership must meet thirteen requirements, which include ability to swim 100 yards without resting, throw a baseball 250 feet and punt a football at least forty yards. According to a report but twenty-six per cent of the contestants failed to qualify last year.

Few More Signers Needed.

The necessary number of signatures for placing the question of University removal or extension on the ballot is a matter of the near future. Less than a thousand signatures are needed to fill the requirements and these are promised within a short time by voluntary subscribers.
