No Change to Be Made In Schedule of Military Dept. Next Semester

The work in the military department next semester will continue as it has since the week before Thanksgiving. This consists of theoretical instruction. The work in the past has given very satisfactory results and it will be carried out as per schedule.

Examinations are being given now for this semester's course and the returns, so far, are most satisfactory.

Historical Society Election Comes Out In Peaceful Manner

The election of officers of the State Historical Society resulted in the reelection of Mr. John L. Webster as president and C. S. Payne as secretary. In fact all other officers and directors connected with the society were re-elected to their former positions.

The difficulties which had been expected to arise in this election did not occur. The meeting was peaceful throughout.

Kansas Students Raise Tomatoes.

Five hundred Kansas students will go through college next year on profits made from growing tomatoes at the agricultural station. Each man will be given one acre to farm and two women will take the produce of that acre and prepare it for market. Three hundred acres will be used and it is expected that each will yield an average gross return of $500.

A meeting of the Scandinavians is scheduled for Saturday evening the 24th, at 8 p. m. in room 104, Law building. Dean Bessey will talk on "Linnens, the Founder of the Swener of Botany." This will be a rare opportunity. Everybody out.

University Notices

Columbia university is the largest educational institution in the United States, having a registration of 10,000 students.

Iowa is not to play Minnesota in football next year, according to Manager Kellogg of the Hawkeyes. The reason given is that a suitable date cannot be arranged.

Do you know that Lincoln said, "The liquor traffic is a cancer in society eating out its vitals; and all attempts to regulate it will only aggravate the evil; it cannot be regulated; it must be eradicated."

The University of Minnesota Prohibition club is out in a vigorous campaign of 100 members. The club, which already enrolls over 50 strong men, conducts a liquor problem study class, a series of lectures, and a prohibition oratorical contest.

Two girl students at the Ohio Wesleyan university were forced to quit their classes, go to their rooms and sew up their new slit skirts. Besides, they were ordered never to again appear in classes with the hems of their skirts notched even the tiniest little bit.

The annual art exhibition closes Wednesday afternoon. The attendance has been exceptionally good and a number of new stockholders have been added to the association. The directors are contemplating the purchase of a number of new pictures for the coming year.
