The DAILY NEBRASKAN purposes to be the free voice of student sentiment; to be fair, to be impartial, to seek advice as well as offer it, to truthfully picture college life, to go further than the mere printing of news by standing for the highest ideals of the University; in short, to serve the University of Nebraska.

UNIVERSITY REMOVAL

The petition to submit the University location question has been filed with the secretary of state. Next November the people will be asked to decide this question of vital importance to the University. What we wonder is: Are the people, as a general rule, capable of casting intelligent votes? Do they know the arguments for removal, the arguments against removal?

We don't believe they do. In the first place, they haven't had the facts presented to them in an uncolored light. They hear removalists talk; they hear anti-removalists talk. But both sides twist the facts to suit their arguments.

In the second place, the pocketbook argument is, in most cases, about the only one given serious consideration. Which will be immediately the cheaper? "For that one and a half!"

We of the University should have a voice in the fate of our college. The University, as such, has taken no definite stand. But you, as an individual, should take a stand. Do you realize that if we all know the facts concerning removal, if we all support our honest convictions, we may dictate in the location referendum? We are from all parts of the state. Our ideas, our point of view, our arguments concerning our own college can't help but have great weight with people in our home town.

It's up to you. Don't you want to have a voice in this question? And don't you want that voice to be truly for the best of the University? Then find out the facts about removal, find out on which side you stand, then boost for the best interests of Nebraska.

mitting the University location question at the November election. The wording is fixed by the legislative act as follows:

"(a) Shall all the colleges of the State University, excepting the College of Medicine, be consolidated as soon as practicable on the farm campus?"

"(b) Shall the colleges of the State University, excepting the College of Agriculture and the College of Medicine, be housed in buildings located, or to be located, on the present city campus and on land contiguous thereto?"

Ordinary propositions submitted under the initiative and referendum law go upon the ballot under a title drafted by the attorney general, not exceeding 100 words in length. This one, however, being already stated by the legislature, will not require any wording to be supplied by the attorney general.

SOPHOMORES CHAMPS

lead by a score of 6-2. During the second half the juniors repeated the performance of the freshmen by attempting to regain what they had lost the first half, and at times displayed some very good team work. The game ended, however, with a score of 11-9. This left the final game to be played by the sophomores and juniors.

The sophomores started the finals by making the first basket. The seniors, however, fought hard and soon got the lead. This lasted but a short time, however, and the sophomores retained the lead for the remainder of the game. Here again the Leyda sisters did good work tossing the baskets for the sophomores and Miss Harris for the seniors. The game closed with a sophomore victory of 16-11.

Of the four teams, perhaps the freshmen deserve the most praise. Though defeated, they were laboring under a great disadvantage. They were compelled to play with neither their captain nor their center. It is certainly to their credit that they were defeated by the champions by only three points.

During the intermission between the preliminaries and the finals the freshmen and sophomore classes entertained the audience with two very pretty dances. During the intermission between the halves of the finals Miss Bessie Park gave the Russian Bride's dance. This was especially appreciated by the audience, which was not satisfied even with an encore.

The audience was rather large, especially considering the fact that unescorted males were not admitted. Miss Ina Gittings was the official referee; Olivia Sturdevant, score keeper, and Bessie Rogers, time keeper.

The members of the victorious sophomore team were Lucile Leyda (captain), Camille Leyda, Minnie Rohrer, Edith Brown and Grace Metcalf.

PHARMACY STUDENTS PURCHASE PROFESSIONAL PIN

Pin Designed by O. W. Cone, a Senior—Pharmaceutical Society Selection.

The Pharmaceutical Society has recently purchased a pin which is symbolic of the pharmacy profession. The pin is in the form of a mortar and pestle made of solid 10 karat Roman gold with a raised "N" in plain gold 14th center of the mortar. The pharmacy students will hereafter be labeled with the sign of their chosen profession. The pin was designed by O. W. Cone, a senior in the School of Pharmacy, and Prof. F. J. Perusse.

EFFORTS TO STOP RAG UNSUCCESSFUL

Kuhl Printing Company Still Trying to Put Daily Nebraskan Out of Business.

Not content with the failure of the injunction suit against the Daily Nebraskan, the Kuhl Printing company is still persistently attempting to put the "Rag" out of business, unless the said printing company shall be allowed to supply the mechanical work for this paper.

Recently they filed a protest with the state auditor against the auditing of any printing claims of the University unless they are awarded by the commissioner of printing. This move was to force the letting of the printing for the Daily Nebraskan by the state.

But again nothing but defeat awaited the persistent man. The Daily Nebraskan is a student publication and its accounts are not audited by the state auditor, as the taxpayers' money is not connected with this enterprise. It is self-sustaining; the subscription and advertising collections are turned over to T. A. Williams, secretary of the student publication board, by the student managers, who checks out the expenses of the Daily. There is one paper printed by the University the accounts of which are audited by W. B. Howard. This is the University Journal. No subscription fee is asked for this paper, and no advertising accepted; it is printed by the University.

Still not satisfied, Mr. Kuhl, manager of the Kuhl Printing company, has sent the following letters to all University authorities connected with the Daily Nebraskan:

"Dear Sir:
"As a taxpayer of the State of Nebraska, I hereby protest against the approving of any printing claims for publications, the property of the University of Nebraska, unless the same were awarded by the commissioners of printing as provided by law.
"Respectfully yours,
"CHRISTIAN KUHL."

OFFICER! THEY'RE OUT AGAIN

Now Come Cut-Ups Hanging Quarantine Flag on Sorority Touses.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority girls awoke a few mornings ago to find their house at 600 Rollins street quarantined.

A large yellow sign hung by the side of the door read: "Warning—Quarantine—Keep Out." The girls were frightened.

The milkman saw the sign and passed hurriedly by the place. He was persuaded to return a few minutes later when the house man came out and tore the sign down.

It was found that a bunch of University boys had placed the sign on the house about midnight. They then took a flashlight picture of the house. It is said the picture will be seen in the Savitar.—University Missourian.
