YOUNG LADIES PATRIOTIC.
 Cleveland, May 2.—Two very proud and loyal young American women were passengers on an outbound local today. They were returning to their homes at Medina, near here; proud because they had seen their sweethearts enlist; loyal because they had done their duty by Uncle Sam.

When war was declared, Charles P. Donahoe told his fiancée, Myra Averill, of his intention to enlist, and asked her to postpone the wedding. At the same time, Donahoe's chum, Paul Bowman, made up his mind to fight for Old Glory, and asked Nora Good if she was willing to wait until he was free.

The young women not only consented, but proudly accompanied their sweethearts to the United States Marine Corps recruiting station here, where both boys enlisted and were immediately sent to the training station, Port Royal, S. C.

That the parting of the four lovers was not without its dramatic interest is vouched for by the Marine sergeant who was present, and who afterwards remarked: "Far be it from me to dispute General Sherman; but some things about war are heavenly. That's it—'heavenly'."

FUNERAL MEN TO MEET.
 Omaha, May 2.—Funeral directors of Iowa and Nebraska will gather in Omaha, June 5 to 7 for a joint meeting, the first in the history of the organizations.
 Conservative estimates place the attendance at more than 500. A show will be held in conjunction with the meetings, where all the accessories necessary to the business will be shown. The show will be held in the Municipal Auditorium, while the meetings will be held on the stage of the big building.

PLAN NOW YOUR SUMMER MOUNTAIN TOUR

From Middle and Eastern Nebraska you may go to Glacier National Park either direct or via Denver and Central Wyoming, with 700 miles of mountain panorama Denver to the Yellowstone. You can visit Rocky Mountain National-Estes Park; you can make an automobile tour of Yellowstone via the Cody-Scenic way. In Glacier you will find the climax of the rugged grandeur of the Rockies.

If your destination is Yellowstone Park, you may go either direct in through sleepers to the Cody-Scenic entrance, or via Denver, to the Cody entrance, coming out via Gardiner.

Rocky Mountain National-Estes Park, just north of Denver, will attract in 1917 the greatest Summer throng on record. Burlington tickets take you via Lyons or via Loveland.

Due to the awakening by the East to the mountain grandeur of the West, whether you choose one mountain locality or make a sweeping circuit tour of the Rockies, you will have plenty of company. Make your plans early. Ask for publication.

CHURCH NOTES.
Presbyterian
 It does not take a prophet to see that the world is facing a crisis. Never before in the history of the world were there conditions like those we are facing today, and we doubt if there were ever conditions more serious.
 The pastor will preach Sunday morning from the subject: "A World Crisis" and Sunday evening from the subject: "The Dawn of a Better Day." The evening sermon will complete the thought of the morning.
 The regular prayer meeting service on May 10, will be dispensed with because of the special services held by the Union Pacific Railroad in the interest of Farm Preparedness.
 The subject for Christian Endeavor Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock is "Love." Miss Kathryn Curtis will be the leader. Remember the goal of the Endeavor society and do your bit in helping to reach it.
Methodist.
 The audiences were surprisingly good for the day last Sunday. Mr. Dinsdale led a spirited League meeting Sunday night.
 The Woman's Home Missionary society meets this Friday afternoon with Mrs. Samuel Daddow. The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Doner, Wednesday afternoon.
 The Epworthians had a business meeting at the parsonage Monday, to plan for the new contest. The contest will be announced next week. The losers in the last contest entertained the winners at the church last Friday evening. A good time was enjoyed. A nice lunch was served.
 We hope the weather will be favorable so that all our church folks can be present next Sunday morning at 10:30. The chart and address announced for last Sunday will be used. We made a better showing in the canvass than last week's report indicated. We have $2,100 pledged and $200 more that we count good as pledged. We also have to raise $572 benevolences. We plan to present this very soon and have our finances out of the way for the rest of the year.
 Mason Phillips will lead Epworth League at seven o'clock. Topic: "Boy Dreamers as World Builders." Last of the series on "The Modern Young Man" at 8:00. We had lots of young men last Sunday night. Stay to Sunday School at 11:45. What ails the T. L. T's?
 The pastor conducted the funeral services of little Ralph Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Newhauser, at their home southwest of Loup City, Tuesday, May 1st. Ralph would have been one year old June 2d. In spite of all that loving hands and hearts could do he passed away April 30th. The body was shipped to Aurora for burial. The parents have the sympathy of the whole community in their sorrow.
Best Remedy for Whooping Cough.
 "Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Charabera's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.
Order to Show Cause.
 In the District Court for Sherman County, Nebraska:
