LIVING PICTURES IN BROAD DAYLIGHT.

One Real Living Picture Meets Another.

She Took For a Spirit Was What Her Friend.

Ghosts don't walk in broad daylight and yet when a woman finds herself suddenly confronted by the friend she has mourned as dead she is apt to ex-perience a creepy sensation that isn't down in the dictionary. In a case like this no amount of presence of mind or self-possession can ward off the mingled feelings of astonishment, fear, joy and curiosi'y that will render a woman temporarily tongue-tied. It is only after seeing the cheriahed smile of greeting, after again

TWO LIVING PICTURES MEET.

feeling that there is throbbing life be neath the dainty glove, and after again hearing her own name spoken in the ever familiar voice, that this strange ever familiar voice

THE STRANGE MEETING.

The meeting of the two women whose pictures are here given, shows that everyday life furnishes experiences as thrilling as those that come to us only in our wildest dreams. And the fact that such meetings occur every day points a moral that every woman in the land should take to heart. Here was a woman in the prime of life, pursued by that sentinel which seeks its victim, among her sex alone.

From a living picture she became, in less than a year, a wreck of human wretchedness. From despondency to despair seemed but the remaining step, the last step.

HER LAST FAREWELL.

Overcome by the presentiment that precedes a lingering death, she asked to be removed to her old home in the West, and spoke what to all seemed to be her last farewell. In the very pa-per that chronicled her departure the doomed invalid found letters written by Mrs. Belle Dement, of Iroquois, Ill., Mrs. Minnie Smith, of Lowell, Oregon, and others. Some of these letters are printed below. They told how cures had been found for cases like her own -shattered health that had almost sapped life away. With no more hope than that which prompts the drowning man to catch at a straw-for she firmly believed herself incurable, just as tens of thousands of women believe them-selves incurable—she followed the advice contained in these letters. The result is best told in the woman's own words: "In less than five months," she writes, "I returned to my friends this little is president. BER with COUPON COUPON NUM-(21) one-No. 161 twenty-one cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sentpost-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1000 pages and more than 300 illustrations. Several finely illus-trated chapters are devoted to the careful consideration in plain language, of diseases peculiar to women and their successful home-treatment without the aid of a physician and without having to submit to dreaded "examinations" and the stereotyped "local applica-tions," so repulsive to the modestly sensitive woman. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away. They are going off rapidly, therefore, do not delay sending imme### diately if in want of one.

Whitest City in the World.

There cannot possibly be a whiter city than Cadiz, unless it be built of city than Cadiz, unless it be built of snow. The best way to approach the port is to take a trip in one of the small steamers which ply between the ports of Morocco and Spain. As you near the coast you see in front of you a white mass which appears to be float ing upon the water, just as you are. The first thought of a foreigner is that The first thought of a foreigner is that he is in sight of an iceberg. The white mass glittering in the sun, and ren-dered more dazzling by the blue sea and sky, looks exactly like a monster ice mountain partly melted, so that the outlines of castles and hills appear upon it; but only for a second does the illusion last, for you know there are no icebergs in that part, and you are quick-ly informed that you are looking at Cadiz. No other town in the world presents such a magic appearance.

When Wrinkles Seam the Brow,

And the locks grow scant and silvery, 'n firmities of age come on apace. To retard firmities of age come on apace. To retard and ameliorate these is one of the benign effects of ilostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine to which the aged and infirm can resort as a safe solace and invigorant. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism and neuralgia. Improves digestion, rectifies bil-iousness and overcomes malaria. A wine-glass before retiring promotes siumber.

Dogs and Their Friends.

It was Dr. John Brown of Edinboro I think, who spoke in sincere sympa-thy of the man who "led a dog-less life." It was Mr. "Josh Billings," I know, who said that in the whole history of the world there is but one thing that money cannot buy, to wit: the wag of a dog's tail. And it was Prof. John C. Van Dyke who declared the other day, in reviewing the artistic career of Landseer, that he made his dogs too human. It was the great Creator himself who made dogs too human-so human that sometimes they put humanity to shame.

I have been the friend and confident of three dogs, who helped to humanize me for the space of a quarter of a cen-tury, and who had souls to be saved, I am sure; and when I cross the Stygian river I expect to find on the other shore a trio of dogs wagging their tails ala trio of dogs wagging their tails al-most off in their joy at my coming, and with honest tongues hanging out to lick my hands and my feet. And then I am going, with these faithful, de-voted dogs at my heels, to talk dogs over with Dr. John Brown, Sir Edwin Landseer and Mr. Josh Billings.— "Three Dogs," by Laurence Hutton, in November St. Nicholas.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pro-nounced it a local disease, and pre-scribed local remedies, and by constantnounced if a 'ocal disease, and pre-scribed local remedies, and by constant-ly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires consti-tutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitu-tional cure on the market. It is taken internally, in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the sys-tem. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHEN'TY & CO., Toledo, O.' Sold by druggists; 75c. Hall's Family Pills, 25c.

HE HAD PITY.

Jabez Wilson, whose 52 years of life had been passed in single blessedness, had little in common to do with the rest of the world.

His faults were many and his virtues few. His two redeeming points-call them virtues if you will-were gen crosity verging on weakness in individual cases and a love for music.

Late one night he came out of St. James' hall, buttoned his coat up round his neck, dived his hands into his pockets and made for home. On his way he entered a cafe and took a cup of coffee.

As he sipped the beverage his ear, ever on the alert for music caught the sounds of a voice that was at once rich and melodious.

Jabez, listened attentively for five minutes, during which time the song continued with short intervals of si-lence. At length it stopped altogether. Jaebz asked the waiter attending him to fetch in the person singing.

The waiter returned in less than a minute, ushering in a young man of a distinctly Italian cast of countenance, whom he introduced as Luigi the bottle washer.

"Well, my man you have an extreme-ly fine voice. Did you know that? With due care and rigid training there ought to be both fame and fortune in it. You would like to be something better than a bottle washer all your life, eh, my man?"

Luigi, in a wondering sort of way nodded,

"That's all right, that's all right, my man. Here is my card. Come and see me at my house to-morrow at 6:30, I want to have a serious talk with you. Can you come?

"Yes, sir-that is, no, sir. Not tomorrow, I work till 11 every night during the week."

"Oh, oh such is the irony of fate," muttered Jabez. Can you come Sunday?

"Yes, sir; I will come."

True to his word, Luigi, clothed in his Sunday garments, found himself in Mr. Wilson's drawing room the follow-

Mr. Whish's drawing tool of the second secon ple of years' careful training will place you without a doubt as one of the topmost branches of the vocal trees.

"You must make a point of cultivating your voice on every possible occa-sion, Luigi. Avoid those articles of food which I shall give you a list of, that your vocal chords may retain the sweetness, strength and fulness that now mark them.

"Your clothes, too, are unsuited to the pupil of a vocal professor. You must fit yourself out like a gentleman. Luigi. You must exercise care, and take a pride in your personal appear-ance—in short, be in every respect worthy of your profession."

As Luigi's profession was that of bottle washer at an Italian restaurant, he naturally failed to see how he could well give evidence of his occupation than by the suit in which he appeared before this strange gentleman. And he said so.

"Dear me; of course I must explain to you, Luigi, what I propose to do. I am too hasty. First and foremost, do you like music?

"I am an Italian," was the modest reply. "Grand. A most fitting answer. Now we come to business. Would you like to give up your present men-ial occupation and become, first, the pupil of a musician, and then a master of the art you excel in?" "That is beyond fay my hopes,

visit from Maggie. She came in tears to beg his consent; his heart was touched at the sight of a woman in sorrow, and, reviling himself for a cold-blooded monster, he told her, in an outburst of generosity, to go and marry Luigi as many times as she liked.

After a twelvemonth spent in Italy, Luigi became perfect. His first ap-pearance in public was made as Gerardo, and, as he retreated behind the curtains that night, old Jabez Wilson waited to press his hands and tell him that his dream was at last realized

Jabez Wilson walked out of his solicitor's office penniless. The bank of which he was principal shareholder had failed, and this, in conjunction with a few minor disasters, had robbed him of every penny he had pos-Ressed.

He had never in his life done stroke of work, and was not even capable of a cierical position.

The apartments he had occupied were given up; the club was never again to see him or hear what had become of him; the find old wines in his cellar fetched sufficient to pay his long standing rent, with a surplus to keep him in food and lodgings for a few weeks-that was all.

From his scanty store he drew a penny every day to search the papers for news of Luigi's success. He could not bring himself to write to him, and to tell him everything. It was pleas-ant enough to know that the man whom he had dragged from obscurity should at that moment be making Europe vibrate with the splendor of his voice. One night as he crouched over the fire in the doss house he frequented. reading the paper, a short paragraph at he foot of the column caught his 'Early yesterday morning the body of a woman was found in the Grand canal at Venice. She is said to be the wife of Sig. Luigi, the well known singer, with whom she is supposed to have led a wretched live. There are no marks of violence on the body, and the authorities have passed a verdict of suicide while temporarily insane." Jabez Wilson's forecast had been realized only too fully, and the broken-down man cried like a child. A week later he stood outside the doss house with exactly a penny in his pocket. He stood wondering what he should do, when his musical instincts, which had been crushed and lain dormant for so long, arose within him. He hurried along the street, entered a shop and purchased a tin whistle with his one remaining copper. An hour later he was walking slow-ly along the middle of the road, his threadbare coat buttoned up around his neck, an old battered hat pressed tightly down over the straggling gray hair that blew in the cold wind, and his dry lipe pressed against the whis-tle, he was playing "Home, Sweet Home"—that was all he knew.

In front of a resplendent hotel he stood and played, with one foot on the pavement. A tall, black-bearded gen-tieman, evidently a foreigner, wrap-ped in a priceless fur coat, came down the step of the hotel, in company with a beautiful woman, in the full glare of the lamp.

Instinctively the instrument fell from the lips of the player, as he mut-tered half aloud:

"Luigi!"

The Italian peered into the pale, pinched, upturned face.

'So you have come to this, ch?" be asked in a whisper, lest his compan-ion should hear, at the same time drawing half a crown from his pocket, "my unfortunate friend."

Many a supposed giant has turned out to be only a shadow.

An Enigmatical Bill of Fare

al Baking Powder

Arranging the Dinner Table.

Arranging the Dinner Table. The table should be placed with due regard to the shape and size of the room and also with proper relation to light air and warmth. No laws are laid down for breakfast, tea and the ordi-nary luncheon. These are informal if forms, as already understood, one of the provide the state of the second terms of terms of the second terms of terms of the second terms of the second terms of the second terms of terms occasions, and much latitude is allowed for the expression of individual taste; but the wise woman, she who "looketh well to the ways of her household." always sees that the best results, both in comfort and appearance, are obtained from the means at hand. Neither the size of the family purse nor the quality of the service at command, will prevent her from seeing that the family board is tastfully arranged and that the fur-nishings and accessories are so disposed as to yield the greatest possible amount of comfort and convenience under the circumstances.

but one crop a year is grown. A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that is is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

A Prolific Cereal.

the most important crops of the entire country. In British Burmah the rice crop occupies about 90 per cent of the ground under cultivation, and in addition to what is consumed by the popu-lation, the annual exportation reaches some 25,000,000 bushels. While the principal growth is in the lowiands bordering the great rivers, another variety is cultivated which grows well upon dry ground, and as far up as the river valleys of the Himalayas. The Burmah rice is of rather inferior quality, and Stealth once impaired is not easily regained, yet Parker's Ging r Tonie has stained they results in many cases. Good for every weskness and d stress One of the Lest helps toward heaven is a good mother.

It is more than wonderful h. w patie thy people suffer with corns. Get peace and comfort by removing them with Hindercorns.

FITS-All Fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No Ha after Lie firstalay's usa arvelous cures. Treatise and Striat both free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kine, Si Archet., Fulla, Pa

Denver was named for Gov. James W. Denver, of Kansas. "Manson's Magio Corn Salve."

Warranted to cure or money refunded. Ask your druggist for it. Price 15 cents.

Brooklyn is cal ed the City of Churches, There are more than 300.

If the Baby is Cutting Testn. Se sure and use that old and well-tried remody, Maa. Winstow's Scotning Statut for Children Testhing-

Snow, at a very low temperature absorb moisture.

Wisdom can live on what fools trample under foot.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

DONALD KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, MASS.,

DOMALD KENNEDY, OF NUABURT, MASS., Has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Ocrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its Falue, all within twenty miles of Boston. Send postal card for book. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is war-ranted when the right quantity is taken. When the lungs are affected it causes

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U.S. Gov't Report

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A 50-CT CALENDAR FREE.

A 50-CT CALENDAR FREE. The publishers of The Youth's Companion offer to send free to every new subscriber a handsome four-page calendar. :x10 in., lithographed in nine bright colors. The re-tail price of this calendar is 50 cents. Those who subscribe at once, sending $1.75, will also receive the paper free every week from the time the subscription is re-ceived to January 1, 1866. Also the Thanks-giving. Christmas and New Year's Double Numbers free, and the Companion a full year, 5; weeks, to Jan. 1, 1867. Address The Youth's Companion, 199 Columbus Ave., Boston.

The Potato's Genesis Unsolved.

The early naturalists differed greatly as to the origin of the potato, writes John Gilmer Speed in November La-die's Home Journal. In England it was held to be a native of Virginia. was held to be a nation of the orig-inated in Pern. Modern opinion holds that it is indigenous to the elevated table lands of Chili, Peru, Bolivia, Costa Rica, Mexico and southwestern United States. It probably got to Virginia by the hands of some early Spanish explorers. It is certain, however, that it was not cultivated in Virginia till far into the eighteenth century, and then it was introduced in the American Colonies on account of the esteem in which it was held in Europe.

Currant Up a Tree.

Quite a freak of nature can be seen in a big elm tree in Waterville, Me. In the fork of the tree, up a dozen feet from the ground, a large currant bush has taken root, and was recentlyloaded with currants.

Piso's Cure is a wonderful Cough medi-cine-Mis. W. PICKERT, Van Sicien and Blake Aves., Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 20, '94. It isn't the biggest horn that makes the best music

The man with the heaviest mustache often has the baldest head.

Do You Speculate?

Then send for our book, "How to Specu-late Successfully on Limited Margins in Grain and Stock Markets." Mailed free. Comstock, Hughes & Company, Rialto Building, Chicago, Ill.

and mind and as happy and free from pain as any woman in the world. I had gained nearly thirty pounds in weight and was so changed in face and form that when one of my dearest friends met me in broad daylight she slmost fainted, for in the East, as well and strong in body

SHE BELIEVED ME DEAD."

She adds. "I owe my whole life and happiness to Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which cured me after doc-tors, travel, baths. massage, electricity, had failed to even benefit!

This woman's case, remarkable as it may seem, is not an exceptional one. Thousands and thousands of just such cures have been made in every State by this same special remedy for women's peculiar disorders and diseases. This world-famed remedy is not recommend-ed as a "cure-all" but as a most perfect specific for women's peculiar ailments.

A POWERFUL, INVIGORATING TONIC,

it imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and invigorat-ing tonic. As a SOOTHING NEBVINE, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled in subduing nervous exhaustion, nervous bility, nervous exhaustion, hysteria, subduing nervous excitability, irritaprostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon func-tional and organic diseases of the generative organs of women. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency. In complicated cases, or when the kidneys or liver are affected, or the blood impure, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be taken conjoint-ly with the use of the "Favorite Pres-cription," according to directions, around each bottle.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

When Dr. Pierce published the first edition of his work. The People's Com-mon Sense Medical Ad-viser, he announced that after 680,000 that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now distributing, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interest-ing and valuable common sense medi-cal work ever published the recipient only being required to mail to him, or the World's Dispensary Medical Asso-ciation, of Huffale, N. Y., of which he

The Tinicst Married Couple.

Westminster Gazette: On September 23 the wife of a dwarf by the name of Morris gave birth to twins at Blaenavon, North Wales. Morris is only thirty-five inches in height, while his wife is even smaller in stature. They were married at Barthomley church last Christmas, and have since been traveling through the country as Gen-eral and Mrs. Small, being the smallest married couple in the world. The mother and infants are doing well.

Coe's Cough Balsam is the oldest and best. It will break up a Cold guide or than anything else. It is always reliable. Try it.

Aggravating Days.

Aren't there some times in your life when everything seems to go wrong, no matter how hard you try to have them go right? Those are the trying days when you want to blame all the trouble on the way you get out of bed in the morning.

Another woman says she can make more enemies on one of these days than friends during the other 364.

Words may be forgiven, but they are not so easily forgotten. The unkind speech that is forced from you because you are not feeling quite well. or the you are not feeling quite well. or the pettish, annoying action that you in-dulge in simply because you are nervous or worried doesn't do you one bit of good and makes every body around you uncomfortable, and long after the words have been uttered or the deed done the memory will rankle and burn and you will wish you had held on to your tongue and your temper before you got into such a scrape.

The Atlantic Monthly for November will contain among other features three will contain among other features three short stories of exceptional quality: In Harvest Time, by A. M. Eweil; The Apparition of Gran'ther Hill, by Row-land E. Robinson; and The Face of Death, by L. Dougall. No recent se-ries of papers in the Atlantic has at-tracted more wide attention than George Birkbeck Hill's A Talk over Au-tographs. The fifth and last of the tographs. The fifth and last of the series appears in this issue. Lafcadio Hearn's contribution bears the sug-gestive title After the War, and is quite as readable as his other delightful studies of Japan. Poems, exhaustive Book Reviews, and the usual depart-ments complete the issue.

The house is cold when love goes out.

have no money.

Jabez Wilson threw up his hands. "That's all right. I will see to that little matter. Give me the assurance that you will put your whole beart into the work I have cut out for you, and will do your best. I ask for nothing more.

A few days later Luigi left his sitnation and became the protege of Mr. Wilson. To say that Luigi was grate-ful would be to put the feeling he evinced toward his benefactor in very mild terms. He could find no way of expressing his gratitude beyond making himself as perfect in his art as it became possible for him to do. "Luigi." said Mr. Wilson one day. "I am delighted to tell you that it is now beyond the capabilities of English masters to teach your further. It remains for the masters of your land to instil into you that little re-quired to take you to Naples, where we will spend the next year or two."

For the first time since their odd acquaintance. Luigi failed to hail an announcement for his benefit with any sign of pleasure or satisfaction. He looked gloomy and hesitated to speak. "You have always been extremely kind and good to me, Mr. Wilson. I cannot by any posible means express my gratutude. But the suggestion you have made, although entirely for my good, fills me with pain. I cannot leave England, because—because 1 am going to get married." The dickens you are!" roared the infuriated bachelor, mad with rage. "This, sir, is the way in which you show your gratitude. You Italian dog

-you scoundrel-you-" He stopped short. What an idiot he was. Luigi was only flesh and blood. and young blood at that.

"Luigi," he began, after the silence of the moment, "Is this girl of yours a suitable partner to accompany you on your upward career through life? You will stand at the head of your art, and you will move in the highest circles of European society.

"She, whatever her post in life now, may be ill-suited to grace the drawing room of the aristocracy, or to sit your side in the carriage that draws you to your mansion."

'You love her now; she is everything to you. Time may be, however, when you may be led to make odious com parisons between her simplicity and the winning faces of more beautiful women

'My kind benefactor, that is impos sible I shall love Maggie as much as 1 do now

Jabez Wilson sighed. It was a sad blow to his vanity and to his peace of

"Think it over, lad." he began. "When the first pangs of grief at part-ing are passed, you will forget about your lowly girl in the whiriwind of your fame, and she will soon put you from her mind. Come to me to-morrow and let me know what you intend

The next day Mr. Wilson received a

He turned abruptly, half-ashamed, when the woman by his side told him to come away from the beggar. "I come, Mirand." Then, as she took his arm and he handed her in a brougham, "I have pity for these poor musicians."-Pearson's Weekly.

THINGS ARE "NIGH" AND "OFF."

Nature Sets the Rule and People and Animals Adhere to It.

The "off ox" is the ox on the right side of the team. The one on the left side is the "nigh ox." This comes from the fact that the driver in this country drives from the left side. Teams turn out to the right and this gives the driver command of the situation. Plows turn the furrows to the right, so the driver can be on the unplowed land.

The terms "nigh" and "off" apply to any team or riding animal, and per-haps have a wider application in describing relative positions. Riders al-ways mount from the nigh side of the horse, and artillerymen ride the nigh horse. There are countries where the driver is usually on the off side, but it is not the rule. In copying pictures in engraving the right and left sides must be reversed on the plates to show properly on the print. If this is not done we have what is often seen, the driver on the off side with his whip in his left hand.

When one is spoken of as being "on the off side" of any question it implies that he is somewhat out of control, as the off ox is not usually as manageable as the nigh one; he does not come so close to the driver, not in personal contact with him.-Milwaukee Journal

The value of photography in determining the start or finish of a race was splendidly evinced by Mr. West, the English expert at Swansea, England. He "snapped" the Defender and Valkyrie just as they were in collision and his picture was of great value in determining the minds of the regatta committee in arriving at their verdict in favor of the Defender, for the pic-ture showed that the Valkyrle had pienty of room and could easily have avoided colliding with the Defender. For years I have tried to induce race For years I have tried to induce race track magnates to properly choic-graph the starts and finishes of all their important races. If this were done there would be a check on start-ers setting down or fining jockeys to excuse their own had work with the flag, and a preventive of had decisions by julges in close contests where their eyes were defective. I hope that next year the official photographer will be as important a functionary on the race track as the judge, starter or steward. -New York Journal.

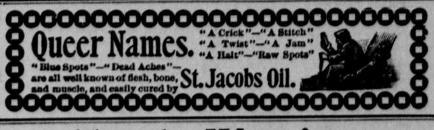

For a dinner served on the dining cars of the Chicago. Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will be sent to any address on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp. Apply to George H. Heaford, general passenger agent, Old Colony building, Chicago III Chicago, Ill.

The hearer of good news always has a Billiard table, second-hand, for sa cheap. Apply to or address, H. C. AKIN, 511 S. 12th St., Omaha, Neb.

ranted when the right quantity is taken. When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it. Read the label. If the stomach is foul or bilious it will cause squeamish feelings at first. No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you cau get, and enough of it.

the best you can get, and enough of it. Dose, one tablespoonful in water at bed-time. Sold by all Druggists.

Timely Warning.

The great success of the chocolate preparations of the house of Walter Baker & Co. (established in 1780) has led to the placing on the market many misleading and unscrupulous imitations of their name, labels, and wrappers. Walter Baker & Co. are the oldest and largest manufacturers of pure and high-grade Cocoas and Chocolates on this continent. No chemicals are used in their manufactures.

Consumers should ask for, and be sure that they get, the genuine Walter Baker & Co.'s goods.

WALTER BAKER & CO., Limited, DORCHESTER, MASS.

a health signal.

The baby's mission, its work in life, is growth. To that little bundle of love, half trick, half dream, every added ounce of flesh means added happiness and comfort. Fat is the signal of perfect health, comfort, good-nature, baby-beauty.

Scort's EMULSION is the best fat-food baby can have, in the easiest form. It supplies what he cannot get in his ordinary food, and helps him over the weak places to perfect growth, For the growing child it is growth. For the fullgrown, new life.

Be sure you get Scott's Emultion when you want it and not a cheap substitute.

Scott & Bowne, New York. All Druggists. goc. and $4,

Photography in Sport. AHEALTH