As we went past Watkinsons hardware store on Christmas day we heard a most unearthly noise and being anxious to learn what the trouble was, we poked our head inside of the door, the first thing that met our view was a lot of kids standing just inside of the door, a little farther along we saw the band boys blowing away as though they were trying to blow the top of their heads off, still being anxious to learn the cause of the rumpus we took a birds eye view of the back part of the store, there we spied Doc Marcy standing along side of a young lady, and Doc had on his face one of the most pleasant smiles that could be imagined. Then we enquired the cause of the trouble and some one shouted in our left ear, "Doc Marcy is married." The statement sounded so much like a lie to us that we did not rush up to him and congratulate him and remind him of the free advertising we gave him and a few of the other boys. However if this should prove to be true we extend to Doc our congratulations and wish him a long and happy life on lifes sea.
