As the time goes on we are being con vinced that there was some truth in the statement which we made in our issue of two weeks ago regarding the old lady Peters. A statement has been furnished us supported by affidavit setting forth the facts and relating the condition in which she was found, also telling the old ladies story. The statement referred to was given us by Mrs. Z. M. Hunter and Mrs. L. Holcomb who in company with Mrs. Winkleman visited Mrs. Peters. By these ladies we have been asked to publish either will seem to us proper from the evidence furnished us.

We prefer to make the statement for two reasons. First; because we wrote and published the former articles regarding the affair, and second; because the affidavit or letter contains matter. although it may be true, would be just as well not published. Now as we stated last week this paper commented because we believed it to be a public matter, as Mrs. Peters had at different times applied to the county for aid, and this fact alone would warrant the ladies in calling on her when she was Anna Krouse ...... 450 sick.
