The only way I can see for John to aid his co-workers is to get them a small loan, say $500.00 or less on a quarter section of land, or get them cheap coal, or perhaps loan them his pass occasionally.

RECORDED.
Last Tuesday was a Galady for the Modera Woodman of this part of the country. The occasion was a grand log rolling at North Loup. Nineteen of Loup City camp with five Ladies started about six o'clock for that City arriving their about 9.30. The day was cloudy and very damp in the forenoon. Dinner was eat in town and immediately after, all went to the grounds about 2 miles north of town where appropriate exercises were had, among which was a very able address on the subject of Fraternal beneficiary offers by the Hon. Mr. Clemans of Ord, followed by the Woodman's Jubilee song by a quartette after which the North Loup Camp and the Loup City camp played a game of ball, which was ably played and won by Loup City Camp Score 5 to 7. After the game the Loup Cityes except four returned home. Messers Neik, Reed, Graw and Patten staid for the dance arriving home in the night. Among the Loup City crowd of 19 their was discovered one Bryan man and strange to note out of the immense crowd at the picnic there was but two Bryan badges seen one on a boy of 19 and the other adorned the breast of a young lady who was making a great effort to get it placed on an old uncle's coat but that old chap said nit, nit. The boys all vote a first class time. Woodman.
