The Bank of Boelus was broken into last Tuesday evening and the safe blown open and $1,200 in cash taken. No clue to thieves has yet been discovered.

C. Gasteier reports a very large trade and is offering the public prices on all classes of goods at so low a figure that it will not pay to go to any other town to trade.

Mr. Leschinsky, our photographer has, since changing his location to Main Street relighted his gallery, refurbished it and is now better prepared to do good work.

Some of the banks which failed during the Cleveland free trade administration are now reporting their readiness to pay a dividend on their liabilities.

Rev. Mathew, who is to take charge of the M. E. work as pastor here, preached his first sermon at M. E. church last Sunday. He will move his family here next week.

Moments are useless if trifled away; and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief.—Odendahl Bros.

See the new ad of A. E. Chase in this issue. Mr. Chase is doing a large increase of business and the inducements he is offering to the trade will warrant anyone in trading at home.

The Ohlsen Bros., brick makers of this city have secured a good job at Arcadia. Dr. Bartoo is going to have a fine brick residence built and the Ohlsen Bros. have the contract. Some of the brick was shipped up this week.

D. A. Jackson raised sixteen acres of fine broom corn on his farm at Hayestown and with from four to six hands has been busy harvesting the same. The crop will furnish material enough to keep his factory running all winter.

Judge Kay reports that he united in marriage on the 6th, inst, at Loup City, Mr. Otto P. Meekesh, of Bristol township, and Miss Emma Noark of Buffalo county.

If you have ever seen a little child in a paroxysm of whooping cough, or if you have been annoyed by a constant tickling in the throat, you can appreciate the value of One Minute Cough Cure, which gives quick relief.—Odendahl Bros.

Among the number who have bought new buggies this fall of T. M. Reed are Frank Gue, Stanley Gue, Frank Larchick each single seated top buggies and A. J. Shippley, Al Sutton, W. K. Brown and John Fisher each double seated carriages.

There are twenty-one business men represented by way of advertisements in the newspapers in the little town of Mason City, which is about half the size of Loup City. In this town not more than a half dozen merchants think it worth while to advertise.

We notice that the Loup City base ball team is billed to play at the Valley county fair for a prize of $50. They will have to cross bats with the North Loup, St. Paul, Greeley and Ord clubs. Now boys don't go after that prize unless you practice up a bit. Them 'air Greeley fellows play ball like sin.

L. A. Wilson, of Ashton, was in Loup City Tuesday. Mr. Wilson has just open up a store at that place with a full line of gents furnishing goods, boots, shoes, etc. He called at this office while in the city, subscribed for the NORTHWESTERN, left us copy for a large ad and ordered a nice lot of job work. L. A. is a good business man and we predict for him success. See his ad elsewhere in this issue.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used every kind of so-called cure; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him.—Odendahl Bros.

A farewell social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Webster last Tuesday evening at which there was a large gathering present. The occasion was to say good bye and show the appreciation and respects to Mr. Webster and family for their successful efforts, before their departure to their new field of labor at Burwell, Nebraska in Garfield county. The evening was spent very pleasantly. Apples, peanuts, watermelons, etc. were passed around and a song service indulged in. At the close Mr. Webster made a very impressive impromptu address. He heartily thanked the people for their kindness and support given him in his work here. He spoke of the minister's lot, and made the true statement that about the only home they had to go to was to Conference where they were privileged to go once a year, and from their assigned to work for the next year. In closing Mr. Webster gave a synopsis of his new field of work and asked the prayerful help of the people here to go with him. They left for Burwell yesterday with not only the best wishes of all for their future welfare and success, but with a full knowledge that their efforts and neighborly influence are greatly cherished by all lovers of morality and good church influences. The NORTHWESTERN joins all in extending their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Webster and family.

Sunday evening, about dark, Albert Lang and Clifford Hill, a couple of young fellows, riding in an open buggy with two horses attached, driving across the railroad track near Robinson's elevator, and not apparently hearing a fast-coming train, was struck by the engine and smashed the buggy all in pieces. Lang was rendered unconscious for some time, and Hill now complains of his hip being bruised, but neither was seriously hurt. The engine knocked the back wheels to the front of the depot, a distance of fifty yards. The mishap collected quite a crowd in short time to inspect the ruins.—Litchfield Monitor.

J. S. Peddler writes home from Grand Island that his race mare took first money at the fair in the half mile free for all. Mr. Peddler went from Grand Island to Aurora where he also entered "Little Girl" in the races there but met with some bad luck. In the second heat Little Girl came down home stretch on three legs having hurt her foot in some way on the hard track on the last quarter turn. Even then she came in under the wire second best but is so lame that it will be several days before he can bring her home. She won the first heat and would have taken first prize but for the accident.

J. M. Thirswend, of Groesbeck, Texas, says that when he has a spell of indigestion, and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you?—Odendahl Bros.

A pain in the chest is nature's warning that pneumonia is threatened. Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlin's Pain Balm and bind over the seat of pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, and prompt relief will follow. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many year's standing, may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens, and heals. It is the great pile cure.—Odendahl Bros.

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham, of Gaars Mills, La. has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicine for it. At last I found a medicine that effected a cure and that was Chamberlin's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Odendahl Bros.
