This gun is larger than the famous Krup gua shipped from Gemany to the Worlds fair at Chicago. It will weigh when complete 126 tons and will be placed in New York harbor for the defence of that port.

County Superintendent George Leininger made this office a friendly call last Monday and subscribed for this official organ, to be sent to his father of Washington township. Mr. Leminger also brought a circular letter of which he has been industriously circulating among the teachers and school boards of the county, and issued by W. R. Jackson, sup't educational exhibit for Nebraska. This circular sets forth the plan for educational exhibits at the Trans-Mississippi and International exposition by counties, appointing the county Superintendents as managers of schools in each county, and urging teachers and school district boards to co-operate in making the county exhibit a success. It further states that the Nebraska State Commission, at Logan township James W. Johnson, with sontiguous wall space, which journed to 1.30 p. m. this day. will be absolutely FREE to all sehools of our state supported by taxation making application before February 1, 1898. On this date the space will be apportioned among those each applicant notified of the amount of space to which his school is entitled. Sherman county should be well represented, and Mr. Leininger figures that there is no time to lose.

HAD AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

When to buy is controlled by inclanation; where to buy is a puzzling problem—the largest assortment and place for best bargains usually decides it. This store offers something more powerful than mere assortment. It has linked economy with its vast collection, and goods are being sold over our counters at the lowest cash price to the customer in the History of Merchandising in Nebraska.

Are you on to the fact that the common, every day things that you can buy almost anywhere, is what foots up the biggest in your dry goods buying for a year? Are you buying them right. Are you buying them at this store? We pay as close attention to values in this kind of goods as to the best we have. Wont it pay you to do the same?

Our motto is: "Your money's worth or your argument and statistics representing money returned," and is fullfilled in every sale.

Dry goods, groceries, boots shoes, Hats, Caps, Chinaware, Queensware, flour, etc. etc. In fact a full line of anything you want.

We have plenty of careful, painstaking clerks to wait on you. We care even more than you do who shows you goods, and that you should have respectful and considerate
