LABOR IN CONGRESS.

THIS TO BE A BUSY WEEK IN THE SENATE.

The Hawaiian Treaty Again to Be Discussed—Senator Morgan Will Take the Lead in the Speech Making—The Matter of Confirmation of Attorney General McKenna, etc.

A Busy Week. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The Hawaiian annexation treaty will again this week occupy the major portion of the time of the senate.

Senator Wolcott has given notice of his intention to address the senate on Monday, when he will make a report of the transactions of the recent international bimetallic commission.

When the senate resumes consideration of the Hawaiian treaty, Senator Morgan will consume at least another day in the presentation of his views in favor of annexation.

The urgent deficiency appropriation bill will be in all probability reported on Monday, and there may be an effort to secure it a consideration during the week.

The house is likely to become the arena for a general discussion of our foreign relations in connection with consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill during the present week.

BEN BUTTERWORTH DEAD.

He Peacefully Passes Away Surrounded by His Family.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17.—A special to the Commercial-Tribune from Thomsville, Ga., says that Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, United States commissioner of patents, who had been ill at Pineywoods hotel there for several weeks, died at 3:15 yesterday afternoon.

The end was peaceful and when it came his wife and children were at his bedside. He came here to recuperate from an attack of pneumonia, and recovered rapidly until two weeks ago, when he suffered from uræmic convulsions.

Benjamin Butterworth was what is known as a "birthright Quaker." Those who knew him best during his busy career are unanimous in saying of him: "His daily life was an exemplification of the tenets of that good, old faith as that of any public official could be."

He was born in Warren county, O., October 22, 1837, was a member of the state senate of Ohio, from Warren and Madison counties in 1873-4.

Butterworth was elected a representative in congress of the First Ohio district, including the city of Cincinnati, in the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses.

From then until appointed to the position he occupied at his death he devoted most of his time to the practice of law, especially patent law, in this city.

"Ben" Butterworth, as he has always been best known, spent his earlier years round about Baineville and Foster's Crossing—the latter a little station on the Miami railroad.

His father was William Butterworth and his mother a Linton, a family noted throughout the entire line for their keenness of intellect, powers of perception and strength in speech and debate.

Major Butterworth's keen intellect and remarkable powers of perception were inherited from his mother.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—In Washington no less than in his native state Major Butterworth enjoyed a well acquainted and great popularity, and the news of his death, while by no means unexpected, will cause general sorrow here.

No public man probably had a larger circle of friends at the capitol. He contracted his fatal illness while on the stump in the late Ohio campaign.

Platform of the Populists. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 17.—The National conference of the middle-of-the-road populists held in this city endorsed the platform up forth by the national organization committee last November, and upon this platform will not only issue its call for a convention in April, but will seek the election of congressmen for the next four years and the election of a populist president in 1900.

1. Absolute paper money, based upon every commodity and resource of the nation, a full legal tender and receivable for dues to the United States.

2. Free coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio; the coin debts of the United States payable in either at the option of the government.

3. All money to be issued by the government and paid out direct to the people for services rendered, or to be loaned to them at a low rate of interest on safe security, and without the intervention of private banks, provided that the volume of currency shall not exceed $50 per capita.

4. Government ownership and operation of all railroads, telegraph and telephone lines.

5. The opposition to alien ownership and holding of land for speculative purposes.

6. Opposition to court made law.

7. Opposition to trusts.

8. We especially recommend the initiative and referendum and the imperative mandate.

The Alaska Trade. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17.—The negotiations between the W. A. Cramp & Sons Ship and Engine Building Company, and the International Navigation company for the purchase and sale of the "Ohio," "Indiana," "Illinois," "Pennsylvania" and "Columbia" for the trade between the Pacific coast and Alaska, have resulted in the International Navigation Company deciding to organize a company to be under its own management.

Must Use Unredeemed Tickets. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce had the anti-scalping bill under discussion.

Good Roads Movement. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 15.—There was introduced in the senate a good roads bill which provides for the construction through each of the counties of the state of a macadam highway that shall follow the leading market and travel south.

The Monetary Hearings. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Robert S. Taylor, of Indiana, a member of the monetary commission, was again before the house banking and currency committee at today's session.

Retain the Insurance Law. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The senate committee on territories has decided to postpone indefinitely a bill to amend an act of the legislature of the territory of New Mexico, relating to insurance companies.

Cutting Off Army Details. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Acting Secretary of War Melickjohn has recommended to congress that the law be changed so as to have details of officers for military instruction made only to institutions, where there are at least 100 students enrolled in the military department of the institution.

Grand Master Sargent, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, said in an interview that he regarded the consummation of the federation of the five railway brotherhoods as a foregone conclusion.

A PRIVATE BILL DAY.

HOUSE TAKES A REST ON CUBAN SPEECHES.

The Invitation of Norway for Participation in the International Fisheries Exposition—The Amendment to the Agricultural Bill—Proceedings Yesterday in the Upper House.

Avoiding Cuban Debate. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The House managers decided not to proceed with the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation yesterday, but to give the day for the consideration of private bills.

When the house adjourned Thursday night the amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill providing for the publication of another edition of the "Horse Book" was pending.

The resolution accepting the invitation of the government of Norway to participate in the International Fisheries exposition at Bergen from May to September, 1898, was called up by Mr. Simpkins (rep., Mass.).

After some transaction of some routine business in the senate yesterday, Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, presented the following joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution.

Resolved, That the secretary of the interior shall be and is hereby instructed to investigate the facts attending the recent alleged atrocious burning to death of two Seminole Indians by a mob in Oklahoma Territory and make report thereon to congress.

WILL TRAVEL ALONE.

Middle of the Road Populists Form a New Organization.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—A new party was born in the conference of the populists and named the People's party.

The People's party proposes to go it alone. It has severed all connection with the national populist committee and made all arrangements for administering its own estate without the aid or advice of any outside party.

With a few exceptions, the delegates declared themselves unequivocally in favor of going it alone in the future. The referendum system was most highly complimented and recommended for use among the middle of the roaders in settling matters of national importance to the order, and there was a practical agreement among the delegates that a national presidential convention should be held this year.

There was lengthy discussion, and it was not until a late hour that the procedure for future action was agreed upon. Finally a report was adopted as follows in part:

To the People of the United States: The fusion movement consummated at St. Louis in July, 1896, and the treatment of our candidate for vice president in the campaign that followed, gave rise to such dissension among the rank and file of the People's party as to threaten the absolute dismemberment of the only political organization honestly contending for the social and political rights of the laboring and producing classes of the country.

It has been the purpose always of the committee to be courteous to the national committee, and our supreme desire has been at all times to promote a harmonious co-operation with said committee, that factional differences might be obliterated, our party prestige regained and our organization restored to its once splendid estate.

This committee feels confident of its ability to show that it is no fault of ours that the national committee is not present as a body to-day, but it does not choose to waste valuable time in warring over questions of official etiquette.

We vow it to be our sincere purpose now, as ever heretofore, to promote in very honorable way the reform movement on true populist lines, and we deem the issues too momentous and the dangers threatening free government too great to allow us to pause to consider personal grievances or affronts, or to permit wounded dignity, real or imaginary, to overshadow patriotic duties.

Under present conditions our beloved organization is slowly but surely disintegrating and our comrades are clamorous for aggressive action.

Having in vain implored those who assumed to be our superiors to permit us to aid them in the grand work of reorganizing the People's party, that it may accomplish its glorious mission, we now appeal to the people, the true source of all political power.

The referendum committee appointed is as follows: Messrs. Dixon, of Missouri; Tracey, of Texas; Reynolds, of Illinois; Matinger, of Indiana; and McGregor, of Georgia.

A number of rules were adopted for the government of the national organization committee, among them a rule that the national organization committee shall submit to a vote of the People's party any proposition when petitioned to do so by not less than 10,000 members of the party.

On the adjournment of the organization committee the members of the national committee present met at the LaCade hotel and adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the members of the national committee present, endorse the action taken by the organization committee and recommend that its provisions be carried into effect, believing that such action will harmonize all differences in the party.

There were seventy-four members of the committee represented by the members present, and the organization committee in the spring. Forty states were represented at the meeting.

Senator Hanna to Rest. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—Senator Hanna has gone to his home at Cleveland, where he will remain over Sunday. His physicians insist upon his taking a rest. The strain on him here for two weeks has worn on him severely. He shows it very visibly. All the workers on both sides are exhausted.

The next hard work to be done in the legislature will probably be an effort to reorganize and throw the democrats out of control in both houses.

Meantime the bribery investigations are to proceed in both houses on the contending factions, the senate having adopted resolutions yesterday afternoon for an investigation of the Otis case, and its committee began work last night, but nothing new was developed.

An Oklahoma Law Void. GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 15.—The supreme court today promulgated an opinion in which the separate school law passed last winter, making it a misdemeanor for a white child to attend a colored school, was declared null and void because of ambiguity, uncertainty and conflict with both the letter and the spirit of the fifteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States.

The charges of bribery in the Otis senatorial contest it is said will be investigated in the United States senate.

Hard Coal Prices Higher. NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Announcement was made today that the anthracite coal producing and carrying companies have advanced prices 10 to 20 cents per ton to the basis of $3.95 free on board for stove at tidewater, other prices in proportion.

The advance, it was explained, is due to the lightness of stock resulting from the continued restriction of the output and to large orders from the west.

Justice Newman, of the Wisconsin supreme court, died from injuries received by a fall on the sidewalk.

NEWS NOTES.

The treaty providing for a lease of Kiaoo Chau to Germany is not yet signed, and Japan is opposing the final signature.

James Doyle, John Perko and Andrew Wesland were killed, and Daniel Munday injured in the Hidden Treasure mine at Nevada, Colo.

Prince, the super, who murdered William Terriss, the actor, in London, has been found guilty. The verdict, however, declares him to be irresponsible.

The Inter-Partisan statehood convention at Kingfisher, O. T., involved in its deliberations the removal of the capital and the question of free homesteads for Cherokee strip settlers.

The state bank at Elmwood, Ill., with a capital stock of $50,000, assets estimated at $100,000, and liabilities of $60,000, has been closed. Action precipitated by the suicide of the cashier.

An amicable settlement has been made between the warring elements in the foreclosure suits instituted against the Arizona Canal company by the Chicago trust company.

Secretary of the Navy Long has sent a recommendation to the house committee on naval affairs for an increase of the enlisted men in the navy by 1,000 men and asking for an increase of apprentices in the navy by 700.

At the annual meeting of the New York Union League club Elihu Root was elected president; Henry E. Howland, Cyrus Clark, Henry W. Cannon and William H. Wickman, vice presidents; Walter C. Gibson, secretary, and William G. White, treasurer.

In London a gigantic linen thread combine has been formed by these firms: Barbour Bros., Marshall Thread company of Paisley and New York; Finlayson, Bousfield & Co., of Paisley; the Knox company of Kilmirnie, Ayrshire, and several smaller firms.

J. W. Huffaker, president, and J. B. Word, cashier of the Brookfield, Mo., bank, were arrested on an indictment charging them with receiving deposits when the bank was known to be in a failing condition.

The British authorities have decided to recognize the question of "diplomatic privileges" in the case of Spencer Eddy, secretary of Ambassador Hay, and J. E. White, the son of Henry White, who were recently charged at the Maidenhead county court on summonses with riding bicycles on sidewalks, and their prosecution will be dropped.

Senora Inez Ponce De Roque, wife of the insurgent Colonel Ponce De Roque, arrived in New York on the steamer Seneca. Senora De Roque, who is a strikingly beautiful woman, was exiled from Cuba by order of Gen. Blanco. A letter which she wrote to her husband was intercepted by the Spanish authorities and, as it contained information inimical to their interests, Mrs. De Roque was arrested and thrown into prison in Matanzas. She spent seventeen months and four days in jail, most of the time incommunicado. She was released under the general amnesty granted by the queen regent. After her release she refused to try to persuade her husband to lay down his arms and was banished in consequence.

An inventory of the late George M. Pullman was filed in the probate court at Chicago by Norman B. Ream and Robert T. Lincoln, executors. The inventory lists the real estate and personal property of the deceased, though it places no valuation on the former and gives only the par value of the securities which form the major portion of the trust. According to the estimates given at the time the will was filed, the real estate was worth but $800,000, and the personal estate $6,000,000. In the inventory the conservatory policy of the executors is further borne out, and on the property valued the figures are such as to leave little chance for depreciation. The investments of Mr. Pullman were widespread. He held 23,919 shares of Pullman Palace Car company stock, and was interested in the Nacaragua Canal company to the extent of $200 in stock and $10,000 in bonds. The holdings of poor investments are small. Out of his entire bond holdings but $15,000 worth are deemed desperate.
