A row occurred the first end of this week in the north east part of the county which came pretty near proving serious. John Sekutera had an old grudge against a neighbor by the name of Ignat Barowski, and discovered a way to get revenge when the old man's horses happened to trespass on his fathers farm. He went after old man Barowski with an end gate rod, and come pretty near making a corpse out of him. Sekutera will have the pleasure of accounting to the authorities for his rashness. County attorney Long will see he gets his dues.

We notice a lot of small boys playing and carrying on at a great rate around the jail house every day. Would'nt it be better if they were asked by the authorities to move on and not be so rude to the inmates of the jail? The prisoners might or might not be guilty. At any rate it will do no good to annoy them, and if made to move on, the boys would be impressed with their ridiculous behavior and a few words might be a good lesson to them.

Persons who are troubled with indigestion will be interested in the experience of Wm. H. Penn, chief clerk in the railroad mail service at Des Moines, Iowa, who writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. The opera house was well filled last Wednesday evening, to greet Prof. Reno on his third visit to this city. He surpassed any artist in his line who ever appeared here. The audience was charmed with the manner in which he performed the most difficult feats. Each time he has been here, he has given great satisfaction. The performance of the educated dogs is entirely different from any troupe we have ever witnessed. These dogs are educated to perfection and trained birds were extremely pleasing and interesting. He left yesterday morning for Litchfield, where he will give an entertainment next.

DIED As we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. John R.
