Last Friday about two o'clock Sherman Newton who lives about six miles east of town, went to the coal sheds at the B. & M. tracks for a load of coal, and while loading the freight train from Arcadia run in on the side track and scared his team which started to run. Mr. Newton jumped out of the shed and caught one of the horses by the bit and endeavored to stop them. This he was unsuccessful in doing, and after dragging him some seventy five yards, the horse he had hold of stumbled and fell pulling Mr. Newton down with him. The other horse pulled the wagon over him dislocating the spinal column to the extent that he was at once paralyzed from the fracture down. He was taken to the St. Elmo hotel and Drs. Maine and Jones was called, they reduced the fracture in a very skillful manner. His wife was sent for at once and she came immediately to his side. The A. O. U. W. boys of Ashton to which Lodge he belongs were telegraphed, and they sent a nurse to his aid. At the present Mr. Newton is feeling very comfortable but the action of the bowels has entirely ceased, and he is still paralyzed in the lower extremities.

LAI D TO REST
The memorial services of Mrs. Elsie L. Smith were held on Friday Jan. 28th 1898, at the Smith residence by Rev. E. L. Stevens, and were very largely attended by the long time friends of the deceased, who left their work to manifest the high esteem and regard they held for her. On the same day the body was brought to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. I. Depew in Loup City at about five o'clock p. m. where the funeral cortege was met by numerous ladies residing at Loup city, prominent among whom were the Ladies of Oriental Chapter O. E. S. of which organization Mrs. Smith had been a member. Also Ladies of the G. A. R. and members of that fraternity, and members of the Masonic fraternity, at which time after a select rendering of the hymn "When Peace like a River Attendeth my Way" they dispersed to meet again at 9:30 a. m. on Saturday morning to attend the body to the M. E. Church. The procession started to the church after a short service of Prayer by the Rev. J. B. VanFleet the Protestant Episcopal Clergyman of this diocese and singing by the Ladies of the Eastern Star, at ten o'clock a. m. The Hearse was preceded by the family phaeton. The Pall Bearers, all old soldiers and members of the G. A. R. followed the hearse, after which came the vehicles containing the mourners and friends of the deceased. The services at the church were conducted by Rev. VanFleet, (the deceased having been a life long member of the Protestant Episcopal Church) assisted by Rev. Matthews the M. E. Pastor. The services while not lengthy were ably conducted, and highly impressive. Though it was cold and stormy numerous friends drove to Evergreen cemetery and saw the remains deposited in their last resting place. "Sweet be thy rest."

Card of Thanks
To all the kind friends whose Christian sympathy soothed our sorrows, and assisted us in the hours of deepest distress, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

The Kickapoo Medicine Co. are giving nightly entertainments at the opera house this week and next. They are like their medicines, first class in every respect. Mr. Fox is an ebony entertainer for sure. When he opens his mouth one would think they saw the mammoth eave. And Mr. Inson, well he is a Murphy he dad, with the Gems of Tipperary shining from every orb of Irish mug. The little Martinetti's are new and nobby. There is the proverbial man that "Lost his head." Joe Earl, well he is a spiritulist. When a fellow takes our vest off, and hangs it double on one arm, with our hands tied behind us, we know there is spirits about, and we hadn't touched any for a month. Laugh and grow fat is an old maxim. Come out and have a two hours free laugh, and if you don't grow fat, take Sagwa.

What pleasure is there in life with a headache, constipation and biliousness? Thousands experience them who could become perfectly healthy by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Sold by Odendahl Bros.
