The Northwestern Yeast Co., are still giving away free samples of their celebrated Yeast Foam this is the twenty second year that those little samples of yeast have been given away, and many of our best families have used no others yeast since they got the first little yellow packages of Yeast Foam over twenty years ago. Others have tried and continue to imitate Yeast Foam, but it has never been excelled as a bread raiser in all of these years.

Last Sunday night after midnight, three of the musically inclined Epworth League workers treated some of our citizens to a soulstirring feast of sweet music accompanied with singing. The trio consisted of Messrs Shahan, of Kearney, Boucher of Haven Chapel, and Willis Waite of home talent. They visited a number of places and a more delightful treat was not experienced during the convention than this. The boys are all masters of the art of singing and playing, and would stir the soul of the most morose.

A new farmers co-operative Hail Insurance Co., is being formed over on the west side of the county. It is formed in such a style that if a subscriber is haled out he will receive one bushel of the different kinds of grain he has destroyed for every hundred bushel each of the other subscribers raise. And if partially haled out, a pro-rata as to the amount lost. That many can help one and not feel the loss is as true as it is humane, the move is one of great merit and should be pushed to the fullest length.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, W. V., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physician told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my sufferings. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co. recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. DIED

Mr. J. W. Bradley died at his home in this city on Monday afternoon June 20, 1898, at 3:30 p. m. Mr. Bradley was born in Schuyler Co. Mo. Feb. 16, 1854, and was married to Miss Jane Beerbower, Sept 15, 1878. Eight children was born to their union seven of which are still living. He moved to Kansas, in 1884, where he resided for two years. In 1886 he came to Hall county, Nebr. where he resided until 1889, when he removed to Loup City, where he has resided since. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father. After about five weeks of intense suffering he passed away.

He was struck by lightning on the 19, day of May, just as he finished unbiting his horses. He was burned from head to foot, his skin being burned off on the greater part of his body. It was thought that he was getting better, but last Friday a change for the worse set in and he died at 3:30 Monday. The funeral service was held at the home of the deceased on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. W. E. Matthews officiating, after which the remains were taken to Evergreen cemetery for interment.

The Modern Woodmen of America, to which order he belonged, performed the last sad rights at the grave according to their burial ceremonies, and each member dropped a rose and a sprig of evergreen upon the casket. The floral tributes were many. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers as it was lowered into its final resting place. None knew him but to love him and his death right in the prime of life was sad.

Fifty two members of the Woodmen Camp of this place were in line to pay their last sad respects, and drop a tear upon the casket of their beloved Neighbor who had been one with them so long.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the sorrowing wife and children and relatives tender our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their great kindness and assistance during the sickness and death of our dear husband father and brother.

MRS. JANE BRADLEY, AND CHILDREN, CHARLEY BRADLEY, MRS. C. BEERBOWER.

MARRIED.

On Thursday, June 23rd, 1898, at High Noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. William M. Smelser, of Ashton, Nebraska and Miss Alpharetta Fair were united in marriage in the presence of only a few immediate families by Rev. W. E. Matthews.

The bride's costume was of soft white silk, trimmed in Mouseline de Souie and pearls, and she carried an elegant bouquet of bride's roses, carnations and ferns. The groom wore a suit of English Broadcloth of the conventional black.

The day had a double honor, being also the 23 anniversary of the grooms parents, and the ring being the one used by the grooms parents, and the grooms costume being the same as worn by his father just 23 years before. During the ceremony the contracting parties stood on a rug which was the handwork of the brides great grandmother.

The young couple started for the east on the 4 o'clock train Thursday afternoon. They will be "at home," at Ashton, Neb. after July 20th, 1898.

The young couple are well known to all our citizens, and highly esteemed by all who know them. Miss Fair has been for years one of Sherman county's best school teachers and has just finished a very successful term at Ashton where she has been employed for several years past. The groom is the son of H. Smelser, banker at Ashton. He occupies the position of assistant cashier of the bank. He is honest and industrious. THE NORTHWESTERN joins their host of friends and associates in extending congratulations.

LOOK OUT—for lightning rod agents. There is a gang of them operating in this county at present. They make prices very reasonable till the job is complete then you discover that you have got a hundred and twenty-five dollars to pay when you expected it was from ten to fifteen. They have done several of our farmers to a turn and are still in the vicinity. Give them a wide berth, or they will skin you. They say they are going to Valley county next.

Ira Williamson of upper Clear creek came in with a load of hogs Monday. One of his horses was badly lacerated, the skin being literally chopped to shreds. On one side were great cuts, as much as six inches long with the blood oozing out and dropping to the ground. So severe had it been beaten that the harness was virtually corrugated where the instrument had struck. He said it was done with a whip, but it had very much the appearance of being done with a piece of wire. He claimed his hired man done it. Some of our citizens were very indignant over it and threatened to prosecute but we have not heard of any thing being done yet.

We Thank You.

On behalf of the Epworth League I desire to thank the many friends who so kindly and generously co-operated with us in entertaining the delegates to our League convention. The many leagues represented also feel grateful for the kindness of the citizens of this place, Loup City. They think it compared favorably with the best.

A. H. Patter, with E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I have never before given a testimonial in my life. But I will say that for three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure, not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is all right, and anyone who tries it will find it so." GOLDEN WEDDING.

Family Reunion, Old Settlers all Invited

Sickness and death of friends prevented us from celebrating our Fiftieth anniversary on April 3, 1898. We now hope to secure a family reunion at the Opera house in Loup City, July 2, 1898 at noon, to which we invite all the old settlers who resided in this country in 1879. Cards will be sent to all so far as we know you and how to reach you, but knowing the danger of missing some in the arrangement we take this way to let you all know that you are invited.

MR. AND MRS. J. M. SNYDER.
