MANY NEW BUILDINGS

SEASON OF GREAT ACTIVITY IN BUILDING LINES IN BOTH THE TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Many New Buildings Being Erected In Loup City and Vicinity Keeps Carpenters and Bricklayers Busy—Big Rush To Complete Work Before Cold Weather.

The fine fall weather is a boom for the contractor, the carpenter and the laboring man. All are busy in these parts and will be kept so until the frosts of winter come to drive them in. Saw and hammer are ringing and new buildings are being erected in town and on the farm. New buildings have just been completed and more are on the way. Many of the farmers are building barns, new houses, cattle sheds and fences, while in town costly residences are taking the place of old houses. Some of the old houses are being torn down others are moved to the farms for outbuildings or to the outskirts of the city to be remodeled and made over and in their stead modern and up-to-date buildings are constructed. We follow below with a partial list of buildings now under way or have just been finished for occupancy:

Floyd Janulewicz is building an addition to his house in Loup City, the work is being done by Lorchick and Radcliff.

A. R. Zavgreen is constructing a large corn crib on the farm.

William Draper is getting ready for winter by putting up a hog house for his herd of fine hogs.

J. N. Ling is following a plan from the Farm Journal in the construction of a chicken coop which he is now building. The dimension of the building is to be 20x20.

Mike Klimek is building a granery and corn crib.

Mike Bogacz, living near Litchfield, is putting up an addition to his barn and his brother, Vince is building a new barn.

E. G. Newcomer, living west of Loup City is also building a new barn.

Walter E. E. Grossnicklaus is constructing a large cattle shed north-east of town.

George Broviak is attaching a new porch to his farm residence and is building an extension shed.

Joe Golus is building a new barn just out of town. It is a dandy and sets his place off to good advantage.

Dr. G. L. Dewey is ornamenting his place with a new barn.

John Ohlson & Son has the contract and have commenced work on the new brick Catholic parsonage.

L. Hansen has put an addition to his house.

James McBeth, on the farm on Route two is erecting a fine new frame house. The work is going on under the supervision of Contractor W. T. Gibson.

George Whitaker has erected a new barn on his farm, and has also built a new chicken coop.

Contractor William Rowe & Son are putting the finishing touches on the new $3,000 building for Dr. Bowman. They are also putting up a new frame building 26x28 for Mr. King.

Mr. Christensen has just mowed in to his new cement block house built under contract of McNulty and Simpson.

The main part of the old Solms building has been moved off of main street and located near the B. & M. track where it is being fitted up for a farmer's grange store room.

Contractor Rowe & Son are erecting a house for Mrs. Sam Daddow.

Willis Fullerton is putting up a barn on the farm.

Clark Reynolds is extending his cattle shed.

A. L. Cash and Fred Zwink are each building hog houses.

Hans Dietz is putting up a farm residence.

Henry Thode has just finished the building of a very large cement concrete barn, partly underground with immense loft above.

Chris Christensen is putting up a frame house and barn on the farm.

C. E. Stickney is putting an extension addition to his barn.

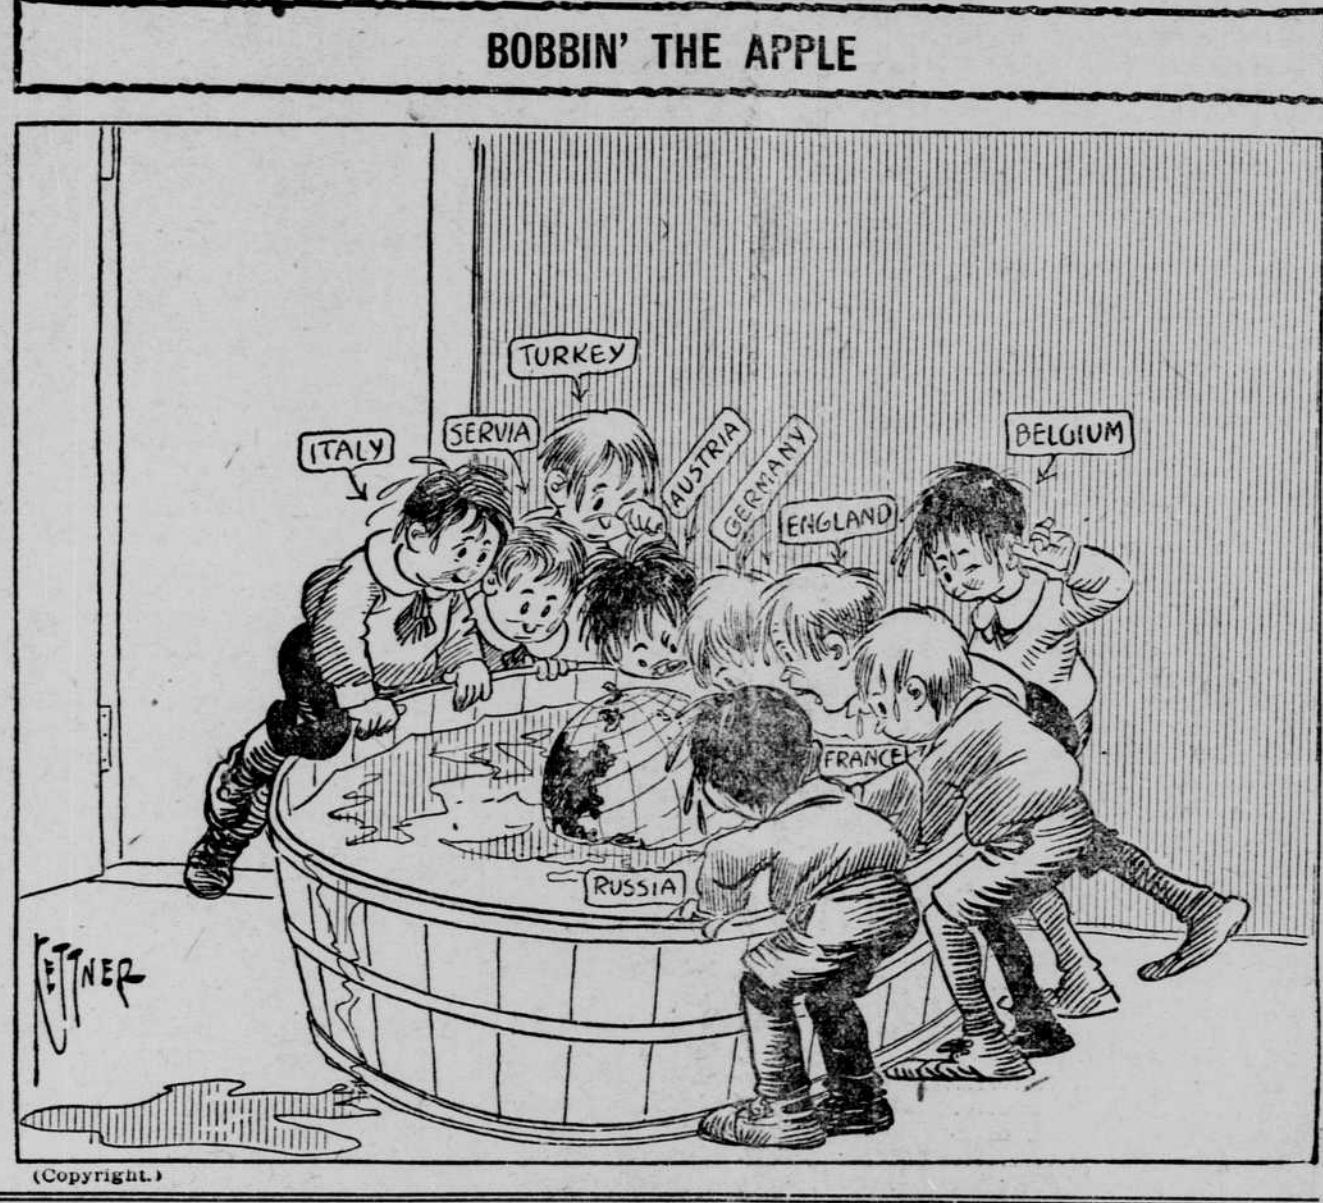

Martin Johnson is building a frame residence on the farm.

Marsel Youngquist and Roman Dembowski are each building cattle sheds and hog houses.

R. E. Hartzel is building a hog house and Milford Hughes is erecting a garage.

All this enterprize is now going on in and around Loup City and we see from our county exchanges that similar activity is going on in other parts of the county.

We have mentioned before, but might again in this connection, the new brick hardware store just finished on the south side of main street, by Ohlson & Son, for Mrs. John Solms, and the fine basement just built under the Presbyterian church. This work too has helped to keep the masons and carpenters busy.

And last but not least the contract for the new $30,000 school house is soon to be let.

It is no wonder then that the carpenters are busy. They are drove hard to get under cover before cold weather sets in. It is astonishing to see how quick they finish one job and are on the next.

GOLF CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS.

A meeting of the Loup City Golf club was held at the office of R. H. Mathew on Tuesday evening last. The attendance was very good, nearly all of the members turning out. Mr. John W. Long was chairman of the evening and officers of the club for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mr. John W. Long; vice president, Mr. W. R. Mellor; treasurer, Mr. L. B. Polski; secretary, Mr. M. H. Worlock. Handicap committee: Messrs R. H. Mathew, O. L. Swanson and M. H. Worlock. Green committee: Rev. L. V. Sluobum, Rev. F. W. Guth, Messrs A. J. Johnson, R. M. Worlock, Lou Schwamer and M. H. Worlock. Match secretary, Mr. C. C. Carlsen.

It has been decided to make extensive improvements to the course, which should shortly be in excellent condition. Some matches have been arranged with neighboring clubs and a lively interest is being displayed in the game by all of the members.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Jos. Kontor, living northeast of town was quite badly cut on the lips and face Tuesday evening. She was going to the well to get a pitcher of water and fell over something, falling on the pitcher and cutting her face and lips. Several stitches were required to close the wounds. She is getting along nicely under the doctor's care, though her wounds are very painful.

KICKED BY HORSE.

The young son of Thomas Garner, living on Route two was badly injured by a kick from a horse Tuesday night. An ear was almost severed from his head. The boy was brought to town for medical treatment. The injured ear was sewed back into place and it is thought the boy will suffer no serious consequences from the accident.

BASKET SOCIAL.

A program and basket social will be given at the school house in Dist. No. 31, four miles northeast of Loup City on Friday evening, Oct. 29th. Program begins at half past eight. Girls bring baskets, boys bring your pocket books.

HORSE SALE.

I will offer for sale at my place in Loup City on Saturday, Nov. 6, 13 head of good young horses and mules.

A. M. BENNETT.

A fire at J. E. Otleski's Monday damaged some property, and other property was saved only by hard work. It is believed that sparks from a chimney started the blaze.

Miss Madge Holmes returned home from Omaha Tuesday evening where she had been in attendance at the Sunday meetings and visiting friends.

WITH OUR ADVERTISERS

WHAT THEY ARE ADVERTISING AND SELLING.

Gratifying Results From Graefe's Big Rexall Sale—Fall and Winter Now the Main Offerings.

At it has been some time since The Northwestern contained a story of its advertisers, space is taken this week for a short article dealing with those who use the advertising columns of this paper.

Before we commence the article, however, we wish to make mention of the big sale at the Rexall Store last week. Mr. Graefe used a page ad in The Northwestern, advertising his "one-cent" sale, which proved to be the big event of the season. Long before closing time Saturday nearly every advertised article was sold out. Here was a good example of the advertising value of The Northwestern.

In this week's Northwestern James Bartunek is advertising his new line of fur coats, robes and blankets, of which he has a complete stock. Mr. Bartunek added a complete line of Wyeth hardware recently and his line of harness and leather goods is complete. He has an excellent reputation as a harnessmaker and repair man.

E. P. Daily advertises, this week, the Sellers Kitcheneed cabinet. The Sellers cabinet represents thoroughly and in every detail every requirement that could be made of a kitchen cabinet. In connection with these cabinets he is offering a twenty-six piece set of the well known Onaida Community silverware in a handsome cabinet, and by buying the two articles at one time you can save on both the sum of $7.55. The Daily guarantee stands back of these goods the same as on everything else he sells, and if everything is not just as represented and does not give service and satisfaction, take them back and get your money.

The Hansen Lumber company is known as "The Yard With the Red Card," and their ad is timely and to the point this week. Fence, posts, coal and corn cribs is the gist of their weekly ad talk and the unprecedented price of $3.75 for a 400-bushel steel corn crib is one of the convincing points contained in their ad space.

A new store, which commenced business in Loup City on Saturday, October 23, in the old Fremont Brewing company's building, is Pizer & Co. They have a large store in Hastings and promise to make their store here one of the best in this section of the country. Their line is women's wearing apparel exclusively. Miss Ruth Levi is in charge of the new store, assisted by Miss Hattie Froehlich. Read their ad on the last page of The Northwestern.

That it is poor policy to buy cheap shoes and more costly in the long run, is conceded by everyone. Gus Lortentz is advertising the well known and popular Ralston shoes, ranging in price from $4.00 to $6.00. The Ralston shoe is now, as it has ever been, the very best value that money can produce.

The Hub Clothing Store, Victor Viener, proprietor, has an attractive ad on the first page of this week's Northwestern, giving their idea of young men's style. Read this ad; it is interesting throughout.

Wm. Lewadowski, proprietor of the Loup City Cash Store, advertised cloaks, in an ad of few words, but to the point. It will pay you to give this store a visit.

The Maxwell Auto company ads, advertising the Maxwell car, known as the "Wonder Car," are beauties from a typographical standpoint and contain many solid facts as to the worth of their splendid car, for which Alva O. Lewis is the local agent.

R. L. Arthur is another leading merchant of Loup City who knows the value of The Northwestern as an advertising medium. This week he is calling attention to his new fall line of blankets, underwear, bath robes, etc., and to his splendid line of groceries.

The two banks and the First Trust company are believers in modern advertising and their ads are instructive as well as advantageous to those who will take the time to peruse them.

The Pioneer Meat Market, O. L. Tockey, proprietor, is building up a splendid business. Read their ad from week to week and give this enterprising firm your patronage.

The Keystone Lumber company is advertising California redwood tanks, a car being received a short time ago. Better buy one now, as they are going fast.

H. M. Elmsner, the jeweler, has a nifty little ad in each issue of The Northwestern. Several more advertisers will be mentioned in future issues and we will make this weekly ad talk a permanent feature. But, before we close, mention must be made of the advertisers at the enterprising little town of Rockville, Kozel & Sorensen, Rockville Cash Store, Rockville Meat Market, Rockville Pool Hall, Jacob Ritz, W. R. Henkens, A. A. Gray, the auctioneer, and Henry Bushhausen, the blacksmith.

CONTRACT AWARDED TO JOHN OHLSON & SON

LOCAL FIRM LANDS CONTRACT FOR NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

The bids on the new school building, plumbing and heating, were opened this morning and the contract let to John Ohlson & Son for $26,990, for the building. There were eleven bidders on the building, one being thrown out. The other ten bids were as follows:

WILL HAWK INJURED

YOUNG FARMER THROWN FROM HORSE HE WAS RETURNING TO A NEIGHBOR.

Attempts To Ride Horse Home With Halter For a Bridle and Animal Runs Away Throwing Him While Going Around Sharp Turn—Will Probably Recover.

Will Hawk met with a very serious and painful accident last Monday evening in which he sustained injuries about the head which will no doubt take him some weeks, perhaps months, to recover from. He was thrown from a horse with the awful result that the scalp was peeled back from one-half of the head and laid hanging on his shoulder, a severe gash cut above the right eye and the eyeball almost dislocated, and in addition, was otherwise bruised about the back and shoulders.

It seems that he had borrowed a saddle horse from his neighbor, Otto Henning, and had, during the day, assisted in driving a bunch of cattle from the pasture to the feed yard, and when he was returning the pony about 6 o'clock in the evening, the animal threw him off with the above result.

The Henning farm house was only about a quarter of a mile from Mr. Hawk's residence. He jumped onto the horse with only a halter to guide him and the spirited animal set out straight, he might have been able to have stopped the horse without accident, but in turning a sharp corner he was thrown violently to the ground with the above result. When thrown he was near the Henning home and there is a row of trees by the roadside. It is not known whether his head struck a tree or not, but presumably not, as the scalp wound was full of dirt, which it took some time to remove. Drs. Bowman & Bowman were called and at once hurried to the scene. The wound was cleansed and dressed in the best possible way, it being necessary to take between twenty-five and thirty stitches to close it. The patient has, up to this writing, been conscious all the time which is an indication that no concussion of the brain has resulted from the awful accident, but it will still take a few days yet to ascertain if there are internal injuries.

Mr. Hawk is a son of Mrs. J. E. Hawk, a sister of Mrs. C. F. Beushausen, and a brother-in-law of Mrs. A. M. Bennett and W. T. and A. E. Chase, all of this city. He is a lifelong resident of Sherman county and has scores of friends who will be pained to learn of his misfortune.

ABSTRACTER A TENNIS CRACK.

The Loup City Tennis Club's Tournament came to a close Tuesday evening when R. H. Mathew defeated L. B. Polski three sets to four, thus retaining the tennis championship of Loup City as also the possession of the loving cup. The score was: Polski 6-3, Mathew 6-4, 6-4, 6-3. Nineteen participants took part in the tournament and some good matches were played. The club is on a sound financial basis. Extensive improvements are to be made next year, and as great interest is taken by all members it is hoped that we will be able to invite the State Tennis Tournament to Loup City for the year 1917.

At the state encampment of the I. O. O. F. held in Omaha last week, J. W. Conger was elected treasurer of the Patriarchs Militant for the third time, at the department Council session.

Checks Have An After Value

When you see a man with a checking account "hand over" checks in payment, do not conclude that the whole service of a checking account has been performed.

Not at all. Checks have after value. The bank "hands back" every check to the man who writes them. The checks return cancelled and have an after value because they are legal receipts and sure records of past payments.
