FEAST OF PATRON SAINT.

Last Tuesday the Catholics of this parish celebrated their annual pastoral feast of St. Joseph. Many visitors from surrounding towns and farmers were present, as also a large number of clergy. Father Peter McLaughlin, of Sargent, who gave the English address the evening before, and also Father Joseph Kolaska, who preached the Polish sermon. Father Peter McLaughlin gave a splendid sermon on Tuesday, explaining the meaning of a Saint to an attentive congregation, while Father Stanislaus Jaszczynski preached the Polish sermon.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and all the ceremonies were impressive. Father Edward Soliwoski, from Kvakow, was the celebrant during the High Mass, assisted by Fathers Frank Mlynarski and Peter McLaughlin.

Due praise was given to our local pastor, Father Jarka, for his work accomplished during the past few weeks. The choir, under the leadership of Miss Lucie Ignowska, rendered good special music during all the services.

A LONG AUTO TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mallory and daughter, Christina, of Danbury, Conn., arrived in the city last Friday on their way home from Denver. Mrs. Mallory is a daughter of G. M. Raymond, one of the old pioneers of this county, and who was in 1884 county surveyor here. Mr. and Mrs. Mallory were also residents of the county at that time, and while here helped his father-in-law to survey out the town of Rockville. Mr. and Mrs. Mallory, while here met several old time citizens and friends, and enjoyed a splendid visit with them. They are making the round trip in a big touring car, it being one of the largest and most costly cars that has passed through our streets. They have been to Denver to visit Mrs. Mallory's sister, Mrs.

C. R. Steadman, and report a pleasant trip thus far, and that C. R. and family are getting on fine, which fact is good news for their many friends here.

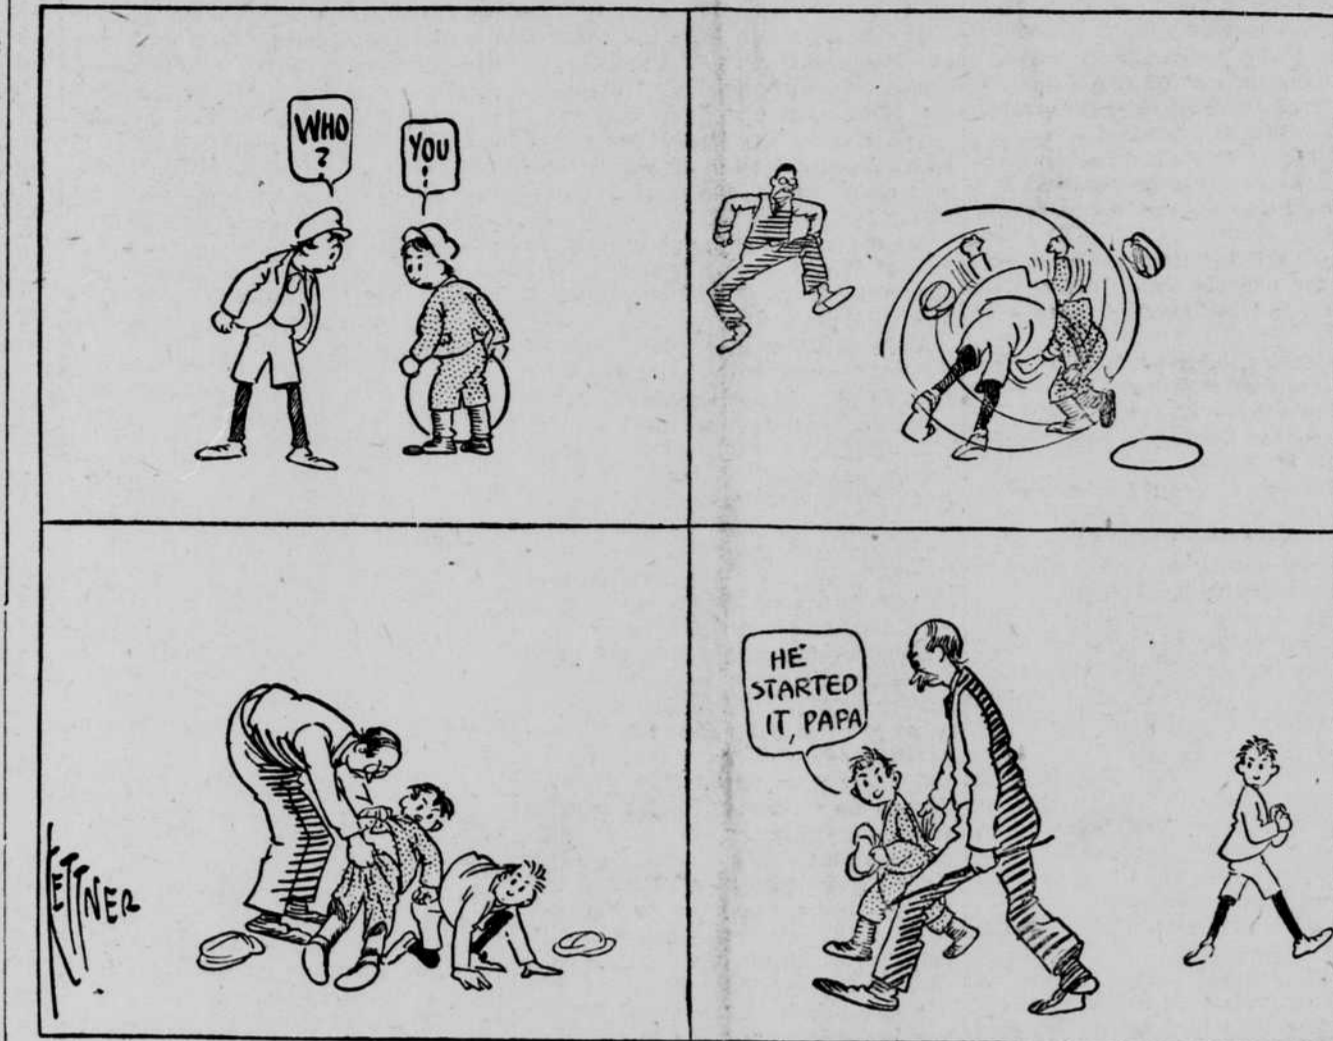

Saturday morning they made a trip up the valley in their auto as far as Arcadia, to visit friends, returning in the evening. They left here Monday morning for their Connecticut home.

"FEAR MEN."

Bradstreet's is authority for the statement that only three per cent of men who go into business for themselves are successful. It is safe to assume that the proportion of successes in other fields, art, music, authorship, politics, social work etc., is as small. The failures are made so through fear. Fear of consequences, fear of the future, fear that we cannot finish successfully what we begin, fear of our opponent, unnecessary, illogical fear stands between us and success, and with an apparently impassable arm bars our progress.

Those whom fear rules we call "Fear men," because they are not really men at all, but men requiring a classification, an apology. There has hardly been a time in American history when men were called on more to overcome their fear than at the present time. Moral strength is needed in politics more than ever before, and moral strength is as far superior to physical strength as the spiritual is above the natural. It is told of Wellington that, before the battle of Waterloo, his knees shook so that he laughed and called attention to them, saying: "If they knew where I was going to carry them, they would shake much worse." That was moral courage overcoming physical fear, and this is the courage that men must have now if America is to go onward and upward. We must have moral courage to overcome the selfish persuasion of the politician, who seeks his own advancement regardless of the public good. Courage is needed to overcome the fear that organizations and societies and leagues cause by their tactics of force and threats in their efforts to enforce morality by law. Moral courage is necessary to make men follow the dictates of their own conscience, regardless of the arguments of politicians, ministers, leagues or individuals. The time has come for American men to throw off the fetters of fear, to come out boldly for what they believe, to refuse to follow the selfish, money grasping politician or organization and to stand strongly for progress, liberty, decency and social liberty.

GOT IN BAD.

Miss Floy Mann, who comes here with "The Frame-Up," on next Monday night, got in bad with one of the newspapers in an Iowa city a few years ago. Miss Mann had occasion to use a local newspaper in the second act of the play they were presenting. The next day the reporter who reviewed the performance said, "In the second act, where the scene is an English drawing room, Miss Mann snatched up a copy of our paper with our back page in full view of the audience and spoke of it as the London Times. We would like to ask Miss Mann what grievance she has against our office?"
Miss Mann appears here Monday night with "The Frame-Up."

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR CHURCH.

Last Friday the large brick Catholic church was wired for electric light service, forty-two lights in all were installed, among them being a beautiful chandelier with sixteen bulbs and globes. The others consisting of one and two light bulbs. This system of thorough lighting gives the church interior a beautiful effect and no doubt will be much appreciated by the large congregation.

The Catholic people are also building a new eight room brick parsonage nearby. It is a two story building with full basement and will be finished in first class style. The Catholic people are to be congratulated upon the success of their splendid effort in obtaining these new additional features to their place of worship. The church is one of the best buildings of the kind in this part of the state and its interior is beautifully and artistically finished. The parsonage, when completed will be the most costly of any in the city.
Chase's for fresh groceries.

OYSTER SUPPER AND DANCE.

The ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic Church will give an oyster supper in Gzhoviak's hall on Monday evening, November 22. Supper will be served at 5:30 and continue until 9:30, when a dance will be given in the same hall.
