THE CHURCHES.

Methodist.

Charles M. Shepherd, field secretary of the Conference Claimants Endowment fund, will preach at the morning services at 10:30 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock P. M., will lecture on "The Epochs of a Circuit Rider." Dr. Shepherd is one of the best lecturers in the state and is a man of large caliber. Come and hear him.

Baptist.

Rev. C. J. Bukoutz will preach each evening this week, assisted in song by Mrs. Bukoutz. All are cordially invited to these services.
Rev. C. J. Bukoutz and wife stopped on their way home from the Baptist State convention, which had convened at Grand Island to visit for a few days with Rev. J. L. Dunn and family, and according to previous promise to occupy the Baptist pulpit on Sunday.

IN THE SCHOOLS.

Clara Anderson was absent several days last week on account of a severe cold.

Miss Opal VerValin went to Hastings last Saturday for a short visit with her sister.

Miss Maud Johnson and Miss Clara Anderson attended the sale at the home of the former last week.

Some of the high school pupils wish to announce that they are very sorry that "The Perils of Pauline" have ended.

Alma Enderle visited in Aurora last Friday. While there she attended the wedding of a friend and reports a fine time.

A number of pupils and a part of the faculty, attended the box social at the Tracy school house last Friday evening.

The high school was dismissed Monday afternoon at 2:30 that they might spend a very profitable hour at the Farmers' Institute.

It is rather hard to give the correct results of the Freshman and Sophomore basketball games, because the reports vary widely.
The Freshman held their usual class meeting last Thursday afternoon. A very interesting program was enjoyed by all present.

The report cards were handed out last Thursday. We are glad that they only come once a month because they often leave unpleasant memories.

State examinations will be held next Friday and Saturday. This is one of the many times when it is good policy for the normal trainers to get busy.

Lois Henry and Oral Youg sang for us in chapel Thursday. We all enjoyed this very much and are looking forward to another time of such excellent entertainment.

A number of Freshman, chaperoned by Miss Grierson, attended the basket supper held at the Tracy school house last Friday evening. All report a very pleasant time and an excellent program.

The high school pupils were excused at 2:30 Monday, so that they might attend the lectures at the M. E. church and court house respectively. Miss Wyman talked to us about "The Value of Balanced Rations."

Miss Wyman gave a short talk in chapel last Monday morning on the "Boys' and Girls clubs' of Nebraska." Mr. Warner also gave a short talk. He talked to us about "The Why of Things in Farming." Both Miss Wyman and Mr. Warner are from Lincoln. They are very interested in the university extension department, especially that part relating to domestic science and agriculture.

PUBLIC SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

The Loup City public school will give an entertainment at the opera house on the evening of November 23, at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for school purposes. Following is the program:

DEER CREEK NUGGETS.

Adolph Richstor has been painting the new residence of Paul Kryski.

Martin Bydalek was the first man on Deer Creek that finished shucking corn.

Miss Minnie Maieski is working for Joe. Kowalewski near Farwell this month.

Nick Blazy is working for Stanley Dymek, helping him build his new hog shed.

George Dymek is rushing the work on his new grainery as he needs room for his fall crops.

Thomas Lubash and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bydalek last Sunday.

Mrs. Andrew Smedra has been quite sick the past week but is reported a little better at this writing.

John Maieski and son, Joe, autoed to Loup City last week on business, returning home the next day.

Plambeck Brothers are intending to build a large shed for their new threshing outfit in the near future.

F. J. Maciejewski was a passenger to Loup City last Saturday evening looking after some business matters.

Last Saturday a cold wave struck this part of the county which delayed several farmers from husking corn.

Leon F. Lubash was a passenger to Fullerton, Nebr., where he intends to take up a position working in a clothing store.

Miss Matilda Peters, who has been visiting at the home of Frank Bydalek

Watch Your Children

Often children do not let parents know they are constipated. They fear something distasteful. They will like Rexall Orderlies—a mild laxative that tastes like sugar. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

Wm. Graef.

returned to her home near Boelus Sunday last.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Stobbe, who was taken sick with cramps, is reported as getting along nicely.

Several of the Deer Creek youngsters took in the Kalkowski-Kaminski wedding dance Monday night. All reported a fine time.

Rain, that was needed on Deer Creek, arrived last week. We also received some hailstones but too late to damage the crops.

Elmer Koch, who has been working on the roads near Rockville, returned home last week to shuck corn before Mr. Winter peeps out.

Every farmer on Deer Creek has started to shuck corn. They are in a hurry to finish before the snow and frosty weather comes.

Martin Bydalek and August Maschka, went to Dannebrog last week where they purchased a Poland China boar. They would like to raise fine hogs without feeding them.

Joe Lubash, overseer of District No. 19, finished his work for 1915. He is one overseer in Rockville township that did fine work. Wherever he hit he made a mark.

Ignats Maieski, the Ashton chief cement layer, has the foundation for a hog shed for Stanley Dymek completed, and now Stanley will put up the shed before cold days set in.

John Dominski, our local life insurance agent, is still holding the same job, insuring people. This is the only job John can handle, work seems too hard for him, and that is just right.

A public dance was given at the home of Andrew Bonczynski last Saturday night. Not a large crowd was present, due to the cold weather, but those who were present reported a

ARE YOU WELL LOCATED FOR NEXT YEAR?

Why not take a 320 acre MONDELL HOMESTEAD in WYOMING? See these splendid prairie lands close to railroad that need cost you but the filing fee; see the winter store of grain and vegetables the settlers have and their fodder supply for the stock. If your homestead right is gone buy a farm in one of these inviting settlements of Western Nebraska or Northeastern Colorado. You can get it at a fair price and on terms you can meet. Prosperous neighbors will welcome you to their schools and churches; banks and stores are ready to serve you.

Have you lost your crops through excessive and untimely rains? Go where you have absolute control of moisture conditions, buy irrigated land in the NORTH PLATTE VALLEY or the BIG HORN BASIN.

Ask for free illustrated folders with maps and data covering either section. The Burlington employs me to help find the location best suiting your needs. Let's get together.
