"That is My Bank"

Is that what you say of us? If not, it is what we want you to say of us.

We are very proud of the depositors we have at this bank, for it would be quite impossible for any community to have a better class of people than

Some carry large accounts, others are medium, while many who are just entering the threshold of business life are beginning the habit of saving with but a few dollars.

Whatever class you may be in, we want you at this bank, and we beg to assure you that you will be accorded every courtesy and afforded every facility at our command.

We want you to say "That is My Bank."
