WHO KEPT US OUT OF WAR?

Only once in the year and a half of European war has this country been in real danger of becoming involved in the conflict. That real crisis occurred when the president almost succeeded in forcing through the democratic congress his ship purchase bill. So long as nations at war sank private merchant ships carrying war supplies to other warring nations, the controversies that arose were questions which could be settled by negotiation. We have never doubted the right or any belligerent to prevent, if it could, the delivery of "contraband" goods to its adversaries. We exercised that right during the Civil war.

But if we had undertaken to carry American goods in government owned ships, as was proposed by this administration, and, moreover, in ships formerly owned by nations at war, those ships would certainly have been captured and destroyed. No one will dispute the assertion that such action would have involved us in the war immediately. The American statesmen who averted the only real and serious crisis, the men who actually kept us out of war, were the republican senators, aided by seven patriotic democrats, who prevented the passage of the ship purchase bill.

Numerous opponents of a protective tariff have been asserting recently that "we cannot go on indefinitely selling to other countries more than we buy from them." The inference they would have us draw is that since a protective tariff cuts off imports and encourages exports by building up home production, we would ultimately reach the point where we could no longer find buyers with money to spend. But those who advance this theory overlook several important facts. One of these is that sales and purchases of merchandise do not constitute all of international trade. Payment for service is another factor; payment of interest and dividends is a third factor and expenditures by tourists a fourth. Although we have been an export nation, with a balance of trade in our favor, we have been a debtor nation because we paid foreign ship owners for carrying our merchandise, we pay huge sums every year in interest and dividends on foreign capital, and our people spend millions every year touring Europe and the Orient. If we had not built up a huge trade balance, we would have been bankrupt long ago. And that explains why American business was wrecked by the democratic tariff law. We were sending large sums abroad for the three purposes mentioned, but balancing it with surplus exports. The low tariff law turned the balance of trade against us and then it was all outgo and no net income. We had reached the point where industrial bankruptcy confronted us. The war averted the full destructive blow that threatened American business.

A press dispatch from Providence, R. I., states that 30,000 employees in the Rhode Island cotton mills are to receive a 5 per cent increase in wages. The increase is voluntarily made. The report adds: "The war has made the cotton business so prosperous that the bleachers and finishers are expected to give the same increase to their employers." Will the democratic "Peace and Prosperity" slogan beguile these employees into voting the democratic ticket in November? Not much! The year before the war will be too fresh in their memories.

There is no quarrel between Wilson and Bryan. All there is to it is the fact that Bryan intends to defeat Wilson. But there is no quarrel. Oh, no! Ask any Wilson man.

An offering is to be taken to promote the work of the national organization, and it is hoped that each Endeavorer and each church member will contribute at least a dime toward this work. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend this service. The prayer meeting next Thursday evening will be at our church and Rev. Dunn will lead the meeting. Be sure and come.

"MUTT AND JEFF."

Last month we made mention of the fact that the printing of the city ordinance book was let to Mann & Rein, of Lincoln, and incidentally mentioned that Loup City printers were not given a chance to bid on the work. Since then, however, it has developed that the said firm of Mann & Rein have given the Loup City printers a chance to compete with the Lincoln printer, which resulted in The Northwestern landing the plum (?) at less than half the usual price and the insignificant sum of fifty cents per page, with the further result that the said firm of Mann & Rein were able to thus pocket, in addition to a good fat fee for compiling the ordinances, more than half of the legitimate printers' fee. As it is, the city is stuck for the $2.50 per page and the Lincolinites get four-fifths of it while Mut and Jeff are playing "leap frog" for the other fifth.—Nebraska Record.

Cattle Ten Cents Higher on Moderate Run.

HOG VALUES BIG DIME UP.

Very Slow Sheep and Lamb Trade. Good Lambs Are Nearly Steady. Common Kinds Are Dull and Unevenly Lower.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., Feb. 1.—A rather moderate run of cattle showed up yesterday, about 5,000 head. The fat cattle market was very active from start to finish and prices were strong to a big dime higher than the close of last week. Cows and heifers showed even more advance than beef steers, dealers generally quoting values all of 10 to 15c higher than Friday and business was active at the advance. Veal calves were active and notably strong, and bulls, stags, etc., met with a broader demand than last week at stronger figures. There was also a vigorous demand for stockers and feeders and the market was active and quite a little stronger than last week as far as it went.

Cattle quotations: Good to choice choice beefs, $7.75@8.50; fair to good beefs, $7.25@7.75; common to fair beefs, $6.25@7.15; good to choice cows, $6.00@6.50; fair to good cows, $5.25@5.85; canners and cutters, $4.00@5.00; veal calves, $7.00@9.50; bulls, stags, etc., $4.75@6.25; good to choice feeders, $6.85@7.65; fair to good feeders, $6.40@6.80; common to fair feeders, $5.50@6.30; good to choice stockers, $7.00@7.65; fair to good stockers, $6.35@6.85; common to fair stockers, $5.50@6.25; stock heifers, $5.75@6.75; stock cows, $4.75@6.25; stock calves, $6.50@7.50.

Some 8,600 hogs arrived yesterday. Movement was fairly active and prices were largely a dime better than the close of last week. Bulk sold at $7.60@7.75 and tops reached $7.80.

Sheep and lamb receipts totaled 11,000 head. The market for both sheep and lambs was very slow. Good lambs were quoted as nearly steady, while the commoner kinds were dull and unevenly lower. Up to a late hour practically no business had been transacted.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, $10.00@10.35; yearlings, $8.25@9.25; wethers, $7.00@7.75; ewes, $6.25@7.25; feeder lambs, $8.50@10.00.

THE SUPERINTENDENCY.

Among the political announcements in this week's paper appears that of L. H. Currier for the nomination for re-election to the office of county superintendent. Professor Currier possesses qualifications that peculiarly fit him for the office which he now holds. Since his election to the office of county superintendent, Mr. Currier has given his entire attention to his work and has demonstrated to the satisfaction of all that he is the man for the place.

He has not played politics by spending his time getting acquainted with the voters, but has spent his time getting acquainted with the boys and girls of the county and trying to better the conditions of the schools until today Sherman county schools are classed among the best in the state.

Superintendent Currier is becoming well and favorably known among the school people of the state, which is a distinct advantage in his work as county superintendent. It takes a term of years in the office of county superintendent before one is really qualified to do good work. Mr. Currier's experience is certainly worth something to the schools of the county.

Every one with whom we have talked has expressed a wish to see Mr. Currier re-elected. The schools certainly were never in better condition than they are today. We feel sure that the voters will see to it that he is re-elected, now that he has filed.

TO THE PEOPLE OF SHERMAN COUNTY.

As most of you know, I have filed for the nomination for County Treasurer on the republican ticket, subject to the will of the voters at the April primary.

Having had years of experience in clerical position, among others, the postmastership for several years at Loup City, I feel perfectly confident of being able to give you a most thorough and efficient administration of the affairs of the office of County Treasurer of Sherman county.

I have been a citizen of Sherman county for the past forty years, having cast my lot among you in 1876, being among Sherman county's original homesteaders, where my early years here were passed in a dugout.

I will most heartily appreciate your support in the coming primary and assure you I shall do all in my power to merit the confidence placed in me if nominated and elected to the office of County Treasurer of Sherman County.

Cordially yours, D. C. GROW.
