Two girls, we'll not mention any names, had dressed up like a couple of men, and were trying to stir up a little excitement in our peaceful little village, and we believe they got more excitement than they bargained for. If you don't believe it, ask one of them. Here's one of the remarks they made "Never again for us."

Here about the excitement last Tuesday evening during band practice? Gee! Willikins! You must be deaf. When the first yells and screams broke out upon the peaceful evening air, tho't the whole blooming European armies had crossed the ocean and were drawing near. But, alas, was not so. 'Twas merely two bums, or I meant to say make believe bums, or better still men, chattering around trying to scare people, but from observations of that evening, believe the girls were more scared than the people.

He also reports that his house was set on fire, and he lost everything he had, and only getting his father and mother out after they were somewhat smothered down.

One of Litchfield's Citizens Honored. Joe Cording, one of Litchfield's druggists, was honored by the State Pharmaceutical Association in their annual convention, held at Hastings, June 13 to 15, by being nominated as one of three, whose names will be sent to the governor of the state for appointment on the state board of examiners of applicants for registration. This is certainly some honor and recognition of ability when we consider the large number of registered druggists in the state.

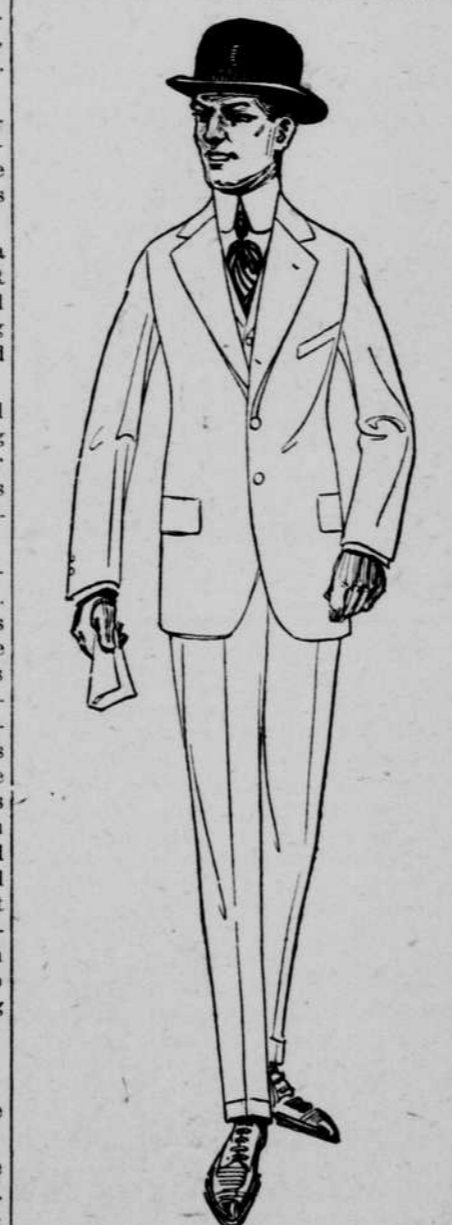

SCRAWNY CALVES. What makes a calf scrawny--off its feed? Germs--parasites--in the intestines. Why not free them of this trouble? If you will give the calf some B. A. Thomas Stock Remedy in its feed, within a week you will see it brighten up and in four or five weeks you won't know the calf. Costs you but a few cents and we will refund that if it doesn't do as we say--J. J. Slominski.

SWAT THE FLY Or better yet keep them out of the house. Now is the time to fix up those screen doors and windows, replacing those that have outlived their usefulness with our white pine screens. We have just received another carload of the famous Atlas Red Wood stock tanks. We have them in sizes from 2x3 to 24x10 and all are guaranteed against decay for twenty years. KEYSTONE LUMBER CO. Yards at Loup City, Ashton, Rockville, Schaupps and Arcadia

ROUTE 2, LOUP CITY Mike Mendyk's new addition is completed. Frank Lorchick painted his new house this week. Carrier and family spent Sunday at the home of J. C. Galloway. Pete Haremza helped Frank Lorchick cultivate the past week. E. B. Corning did some surveying along section 3 the past week. Freddie McLaughlin from Aurora, Neb., is visiting at the McLaughlin home. Henry Bichel's men hauled several loads of lumber from Loup City the past week. C. R. Conger and family visited at the home of A. T. Conger on route one Sunday. Miss Neva McLaughlin is home again after several months of schooling in the eastern part of the state. Several on route two are letting some of their alfalfa go to seed. Jim Roush has fifty acres that he is leaving for seed. The big four have been doing a dandy job of grading the road along the divide from A. H. Newhouse's to the valley the past week. The big four this week opened up a new road from Newhouse's north west corner south one-half mile towards the old Gee place. E. B. Corning and son and Cliff Rowe surveyed a road last Wednesday running north of Pugsley's connecting with the road north of the old Lorenz Gee place. Floyd Howard has had a hard tussle out of his accident but is getting along as good as can be expected. The doctor gave the foot another examination Saturday and found a broken bone. Geo. Wagner's barn was struck by lightning last Monday night and burned to the ground with all its contents. The contents belonged to John Delemont and consisted of a span of horses all his harnesses and feed also many other articles of value. Martin Paulsen was knocked from a hay stacker and badly hurt last Friday. The stacker had just been changed to run the stack higher and the rope was let out that keeps the stacker from going over when at the top. Either the rope slipped or the distance was miscalculated for the stacker never stopped at the top but went right over onto the stack striking Martin with the above results. He will be laid up for some time. The big four certainly did a dandy piece of road work from Newhouse's to Plambeck's corner. One thing we notice in particular was that they saw that the water was carried in deep ditches until a low place was found that it could be turned down a draw. This part of road building is a good many times neglected. If the road drag is used. Nothing else is necessary on this piece of road for years. Carrier would like to see the road drag put on now and dragged not less than twice. Tom Ward came near having a very serious accident last Thursday afternoon. He was working for Tenu Biemond raking alfalfa and had gotten off the rake to oil it when at once the team flew into a dead run. He was in front of the rake and was knocked and rolled quite a distance. It was some time before he could get to his feet and was in a dazed condition then. The team ran over a half mile crossing a small bridge that is almost to
