If some live merchant will spend an hour or two some evening with his store blinds drawn and install a handsome attractive window display, something unique and out of the ordinary, and then advertise it in this paper, we venture the prediction that at least half of the people in this community will be around to see it. And many of them will buy just because they happen to be there. Advertising will get the people to a store that is worth going to, but the merchant and his own goods must do the selling. Step up, gentlemen. What merchant in this town wants the people to beat a path to his store.

What is the best preparedness against sickness and disease? Athoro cleansing, prIFYing herb laxative taken occasionally, say once a week, is the safest, surest way to health and happiness. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will "prepare the way."—Graef's Pharmacy.

W. F. Mason was nearly laid up with a very lame foot for several days. Mr. Mason pronounced his trouble an old fashioned stone bruise, though several might mention claimed it was the gout. However, we do not give much credence to the latter claim as Mr. Mason leads too active a life to ever be troubled with the gout.

A family reunion was held at the A. E. Chase home last Sunday. Those present from out of town were: A. Sutton and Mrs. Carl Johnson and children, of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Do you want to see this town grow? Do you want to see more money in circulation here? Do you want more of that money yourself? Then, stop kicking and get out and push. If you see a defect, help remedy it instead of complaining. Do something yourself instead of leaving everything for others to do. This town is and always will be just what we ourselves make it, just as the live wire communities are what their own live wires make them. You can't cultivate corn with a dead horse, and you can't make a live town by simply telling others what they ought to do.

A big time is promised at the Howard County fair which will be held in St. Paul next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 3-4-5. An expert aviator will make two flights each day. Numerous other free attractions. Three big ball games will be staged, and a program, filling in the entire day, will be rendered, making it one of the best fairs ever held in Central Nebraska. The Ord and Loup City trains will be held in St. Paul each afternoon. A steam train will run in place of the motor on the Loup City branch. Dannebrog and St. Paul play ball on the first day; Boelus and St. Paul the second day, and Greeley and Scotia will battle for the championship of the Loup Valley on Thursday.

Now that the strike is off, the next thing we hear of will no doubt be another boost in freight rates. That will mean more boosts in the retail price of everything, for it is not the roads or the dealers that pay the freight, it is the consumer. If the manufacturer adds 5 per cent to his prices, the wholesaler will tack on another ten or perhaps more, and there is no telling how much more will be screwed from the public before it reaches the consumer. If it was simply an increase of the one five per cent or so all along the line it would not be such a burden. But it is not. Every fellow who handles it wants to suck a little extra blood from the turnip, until by the time it reaches your home or business office the original increase has multiplied many fold. How does it feel to be a goat, anyway?
