"THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

D. W. Griffith's mighty spectacle "The Birth of a Nation" begins its engagement at the Garland theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, November 8 and 9, performances daily at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m.

Nothing like this wonderful attraction has ever been seen upon the local boards. It is given here exactly as it is being presented in New York City where the big drama has broken every record in the stage history of the first city in the country. In addition the piece has piled up record engagements in Chicago, Boston, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

It covers a wide range of American history and touches only the highest points of interest in the great events that led up to and terminated in the Civil war. The force that slavery played in producing this crisis is traced from its inception to its abolition. While the basic theme is historical in its foundation its intent is the fundamental one of true drama. The forces which make for these results have been marshalled upon a larger scale than was ever dreamed of before.

Where directors of vast spectacle have dealt with hundreds of 15,000 people fill his stage with a vast territory for its background. 3,000 horses pass before your view in wild dashes over miles of country roadway.

The decisive battles of the Civil War are reproduced in faithful detail and you see these conflicts fought again just as they were waged 50 years ago. Cities were built up only to be destroyed to lend force and merit to the dramatic narrative.

One enormous battle field is shown stretching over an area of 10 square miles and upon these planes and trenches 10,000 soldiers clash in a mimic warfare that is as real as if you were eye witnesses of the actual occurrence.

Holding the great effects in tether is a story as tender and true as love and romance can be pictured. There are tears and smiles, noble sacrifices and heroic deeds of personal valor.

Youthful dreams of love's fruition are rent asunder by the demons of war; home ties snap before the call to arms before the call to arms and suffering such as cannot be imagined is depicted in the crude manner that history is made when men surrender reason to passion and engage in a deadlock of armed resistance.

You see the war started after being shown the causes which precipitated it. You see the contending sections playing their desperate games of human pawns moved into the fields of slaughter. Then comes the agreement for peace and Lincoln sets about his superhuman task of healing the wounds by the application of that great love which made him the towering figure of his age.

A fanatic's bullet stills the heart which beat so evenly for all humanity. The South is thrown back into a worse fate than war. Their lands are overrun by a hungry horde of politicians and grafters. The poor negro is cajoled into a false understanding of liberty and in his ignorance is led into excesses by these scoundrels of fortune.

Out of it comes the ghostly crusaders of a terrible era to once more set things aright and return the lands and liberties of peace to their rightful owners and over the lands miserere sounds the chorus of brotherly love in an allegorical dream which visions the re-union of the divided sections and the welding of that national spirit which has made this nation so great after its baptism in its own blood.

A wonderful score of operatic reaches accompanies the narrative. It is all done upon a most stupendous scale. No detail has been overlooked. The drama is outlined and told in the most graphic form that has yet been devised by the brain of man for such purpose. No wonder this work is epoch-making. It has set up new standards which it will be difficult to equal for many a year to come.

CHURCH NOTES.

Methodist.

The Sunday School board and Epworth League Cabinet met at the parsonage Tuesday evening for a social time and to adopt their part of the evangelistic and social program. Committees were appointed by the Sunday School Superintendent, A. J. Johnson, to make the necessary arrangements. Miss Grierson, president of the Epworth League and Mr. Johnson have charge of the program.

The pastor and wife are having a good time this week finding our country members in their homes. Thanks to some of the men with autos, who know the way, we are getting around quickly. If we should miss a home please let us know at once as we want to get into every home now. We will get to the town homes with the program next week.

The attendance at Epworth League last Sunday at 6:30 was the best for the month. Come on, young men of the church, get under your part of the work in the league. We had 267 at Sunday school last Sunday. If the babies had been counted it is thought it was a record breaker. Stay next Sunday and help break the record. Takes only nine more than last Sunday.

The audience last Sunday crowded the church morning and evening. The singing was great. Everybody sings. Bring your singer next Sunday. Sermon at 10:30, "The Real Riches." A sermon of special interest in the beginning of the year. At 7:30 "Self Starters." Everybody welcome.

TO FARMERS WHO UNDERSTAND THE GREAT VALUE OF GOVERNMENT IRRIGATED LANDS

Watch for the expected announcement this Autumn of the opening by the Government of its new 12,000 acre Farmie tract in the Big Horn Basin. 200 reliably irrigated farms. No agents. No commissions. Direct to you from Uncle Sam, free homestead land and actual cost of perpetual water-right 20 years' time, no interest and no payment between the first and fifth year.

If you want to know the future value of these farms, visit the adjacent locality of Powell, Wyoming, in the heart of 40,000 acres of irrigated land under this same Government Canal. The Government has now on file more applications than it has farms to allot, but we believe it our duty to let you know of this chance.

Write me and I will keep your name on file, to inform you as to the date of this opening.

MR. FARMER, JUST HOW MUCH OF YOUR SOFT CORN DID THE DISTILLER BUY?

LAST WEEK THE "LEAGUE DOPE" GAVE STATISTICS TO "PROVE" HOW WOEFUL WOULD HAVE BEEN THE LOSS HAD NOT DISTILLERS BOUGHT NEBRASKA'S SOFT CORN CROP.

A former government gauger, long employed in measuring the output of the Peoria plants, laughs at the story. "In the first place," he says, "soft corn doesn't yield enough alcohol to make its use desirable in distilling. In the second place the quality of the alcohol made from it is very poor. And lastly, the slop from soft corn is not good for feeding cattle. All these considerations keep the distillers from using soft corn at all, except when they get some through their buyers."

FURTHERMORE, everyone knows that starch factories offer the best and only markets for soft corn. So you see, Mr. Farmer, the Nebraska brewer can never get your vote by this soft corn line of talk. It lacks argument.
