NUMBER 47

RESULTS OF ELECTION

The election this year brought forth many surprises and a good many fellows are slightly dizzy yet. It is a toss up between Wilson and Hughes, with Wilson appearing to be in the lead at this time. Nebraska has apparently gone democratic with Neville and Hitchcock carrying the state by safe margins. The dry amendment carried by a very large majority. Wilson carried Sherman county by about 300 votes. In 1890 Sherman County gave the "wets" a majority of 204 votes, this year the "drys" carried the county by 252 votes.

Several spirited contests took place on the county ticket, the race between D. C. Grow and Garret Lorenz being the closest, with Mr. Grow being nine votes in the lead. A number of the friends of R. H. Mathew wrote in his name for county attorney. Mr. Mathew was not aware of this arrangement and the number of votes he received has not been recorded at this time. L. L. Stephens was re-elected by a large majority.

CHURCH NOTES.

Presbyterian.

We wish to thank all those who took part in our Temperance Pageant Sunday evening. It certainly was a fine program, and it helped some to put Nebraska in the white ranks. This dye cleaning process is certainly all right.

The pastor will preach both morning and evening next Sabbath. C. U. Bitner will lead the Christian Endeavor at 6:30 o'clock.

The regular meeting of the workers conference of the Sabbath school will be Monday evening in the basement of the church. Let every member be present.

The Ladies' Industrial society wish to announce that they will give their annual dinner on Friday, Nov. 17. Watch for further announcements.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ward VerValin. Mrs. E. M. Steen will be the leader and Mrs. J. F. Nicolson will have charge of the devotions. The ladies of the Missionary society wish also to announce that their annual Thank Offering will be taken on Nov. 26th, at which time about 100 interesting Stereopticon pictures will be shown.

Methodist.

We had 247 at Sunday school and a full house both preaching services last Sunday. The attendance on last Thursday was over 300. That was a record breaking prayer meeting. Please return the prayer circle cards. If you did not get one tell the pastor. The W. H. M. S. had a larger attendance than usual at the home of Mrs. Wm. Rowe last week and the program was especially good. The Ladies' Aid society is announced to meet with Mrs. S. N. Sweetland this week. The ladies met at the church last Saturday and did up a large amount of sewing for the family of Wm. George.

Dr. Isham will preach next Sunday at 7:30. We hope the church will be crowded to hear him. Everybody invited. Sacramental service. Sermon by the pastor at 10:30. Subject, "Christ in Us." Come praying. First quarterly conference at the church on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The pastor will preach at Wiggle Creek at 3:30. They have a good Sunday school at 2:30. Let us make the town school 260 next Sunday. Everybody turn out to the program and social given by the young people Thursday night Nov. 16. Epworth League at 6:30 Sunday evening. Leader, Mahie Daddow. Topic: If they cannot believe in us will they believe in our Christ?

The pastor and wife autographed Wiggle Creek Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daddow. It was a disagreeable night to be out but the big feast of good things we found when we got there and the fellowship of the friendly folks present made the trip a pleasure. We never saw so many oysters and so much soup in one bowl before. We had done our best to develop a real farmer's appetite for the occasion. When we got there the long table was full of folks and we got nervous lest there should not be enough chicken for us. But when we sat there and ate and ate as long as we could with good grace, and still they smilingly brought more piles of chicken with the exhortation to "eat" we decided the supply was inexhaustible and quit. The ladies must have netted a neat sum.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude for the many and manifold acts and deeds of kindness and words of love and sympathy from our friends and neighbors and the people of our entire community in our grief and sorrow and irremediable loss, in the death of our loved baby and the tragedy of the burning of our home and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. George.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry George.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Biehl.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Enderle.
Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nicholas.
Mr. and Mrs. John George.
Mr. and Mrs. Gus George.

No man is ever so great but what a dirty street urchin can make him look like thirty cents.

W. P. Cook, the local manager for the Nebraska Telephone Co., has been promoted as Area manager with headquarters at St. Paul and will have about fifteen phone systems under his jurisdiction. Mr. Morris will become a member of the company at once and will take the position in the engine room now filled by Nelson Smith, who has made arrangements to locate at St. Paul, Neb. ## A Good Introduction Goes a Long Way—

A WOMAN'S PAST

In this marvelous William Fox photoplay, Nance O'Neil is cast as Jane Awley, a struggling authoress. In the course of her efforts to dispose of her manuscripts, she encounters the editor of a famous magazine, Sterling by name, who gives her employment. Jane falls in love with Sterling, a thoroughbred rascal, and the inevitable happens. Despite Jane's pleadings, her scornfully employer refuses to marry her. She leaves him and soon afterward Wilson Stanley, a former friend of Sterling's falls in love with and marries her. Three years later, Stanley is called to the Philippines on government service. Jane and her little son live with her father-in-law waiting for the return of Stanley. One day she meets her betrayer on the street. He follows her home. Wilson's father discovers the couple in the garden in a very compromising attitude and turns Jane into the street. She returns to Sterling. Many years pass. Stanley, who has returned home tries in vain to find his erring wife. One day, after he has given up hope he sees her upon the street and follows her to the squalid attic where she lives in poverty with Sterling. At sight of the man who has ruined his home, Stanley goes temporarily insane and in the terrific fight which follows, stabs his rival to the heart. He escapes, and Jane is arrested for the crime. The evidence is overwhelmingly against her. The jury has pronounced its verdict, "guilty," and the doomed woman rises to receive her sentence, when Providence steps in and saves her from an unmerited fate. Never before upon the screen has been such an intense and thrilling climax been depicted.

Fox Feature at the Garland Theatre, Tuesday Evening, November 14, 10 and 15c
