MANY CABINET CHANGES.

A favorite sport in Washington just now is the remaking of the President's Cabinet. It seems to be taken for granted that there will be several changes in the personnel of Mr. Wilson's official family after the fourth of March and speculation has already marked Messrs. McAdoo, Gregory and Houston as certain to retire from office.

Mr. McAdoo is said to be contemplating entering banking in New York, which it, also, is reported to have enticed Mr. Gregory with a chance to associate himself with a big law firm. Mr. Houston is said to be going back to his place in St. Louis as chancellor of Washington University, where a vice-chancellor has been holding down the job as against his chief's return. Mr. Redfield, too, is thought to have outlived his usefulness as Secretary of Commerce, though his future is undecided by any gossip now afloat here; while Josephus Daniel's retention as head of the Navy Department is the dark secret of life at the capital.

The new Cabinet is expected to show a wider geographic distribution than the present one, wherein the south and New York occupy dominating positions. Mr. Wilson was the first President in many years who did not have a New England man at his council table and it is expected, that this section will now receive recognition. Senator Hollis of New Hampshire, has been suggested in this connection, and the fact that his state went for Wilson gives some force to the idea. But, inasmuch as New Hampshire has a republican governor who would name a Republican successor to Mr. Hollis in the case of his translation to the Cabinet, it is unlikely that the Granite State will have such an honor, even though the Senate still has a Democratic majority of twelve. President Harry Garfield of Williams College is looked upon here as much more likely to be struck by Cabinet lightning if a Yankee is to be taken.

Mr. Garfield, though a nominal republican, supported Mr. Wilson, whose son-in-law, Francis B. Sayre, is Mr. Garfield's assistant and might be in line for promotion to the presidency of the college in case his superior should get a portfolio. This consideration may not deter the President from selecting Mr. Garfield. Senator Walsh of Montana is said to be a probable cabinet member as a representative of the West, and in his case there is no situation such as militates against Senator Hollis, Senator Walsh was in charge of the Chicago headquarters of the Democracy in the campaign and, like others of the faithful, he doubtless feels that he should have a reward. Henry Morgenthau, also, is in the class of "deserving democrats" who labored in the vineyard during the recent period of harvesting Democratic votes. Mr. Morgenthau is believed to have some kind of a promise outstanding from the President following his resignation of the Constantinople embassy to take up campaign work, and the wise ones look for him to realize on his expectations.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.

Episcopal services will be held in the German church Tuesday evening, December 19th at 8 o'clock p. m. Bishop Beecher of Omaha and Rev. J. M. Bates will have charge of the services.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Sunday, we had the largest attendance we have ever had at a Sunday-school by seven. If the weather had been favorable we would have had seventy-five more. We are glad that so many are willing to brave a storm to attend.

Next Sabbath will be Church Day. At ten-thirty the pastor will give a synopsis of the history and doctrine of the Presbyterian church. We have a history of which we are not ashamed, and we extend a cordial invitation to every one to hear this talk Sunday morning.

In the evening at 7:30 the Great Commission of the church, will be given in Stereopticon views.

The subject for Christian Endeavor will be, "Big Jobs Awaiting Us." This is an interesting subject. Come and see which one of these jobs belongs to you.

Pay no attention to the weather.

come on anyway, we will have it warm on the inside, even if it is cold out. A welcome to all.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

We had a fairly good audience last Sunday morning in spite of the inclement weather. The evening service was not so well attended on account of the storm, but had a very interesting Young Peoples meeting, led by Lillian Wall and Bessie Conger.

Bro. Jacobs of the Baptist church, Council Bluffs, Iowa, gave an interesting talk to the young people. The pastor then gave a short talk on the "New Testament Covenant, in contrast with the Covenant of Works Exo. 19:8. Heb. 8:10, 12. Rom. 4:5.

Sunday morning the subject will be "An Earnest Cry." The evening will be given to a song service and Gospel sermon.

The Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 will be led by Miss Eva Jackson. Subject "Big Jobs Awaiting Us." Exo. 3:1-14.

A hearty welcome awaits you at all of these services.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Attendance was extra good for a cold day last Sunday morning. There were over 170 at Sunday-school. In the evening Rev. Mr. Smithberg, pastor of the Swedish Mission church, brought us a most wholesome message.

The supper and bazaar last Friday night was a great success in every way. The ladies of the Aid Society are very grateful to all who by their help and presence contributed to make the occasion a success. We heard many complimentary things concerning the fine supper. The number taking supper was a record breaker. We have not learned the exact amount of cash received but it was about $225. It was the biggest affair of the kind we ever attended. The ladies deserve a most hearty vote of thanks for their hard work for the church. We appreciate it. And say, we appreciated that chicken pie. The memory of it will abide forever. We never stopped at one plateful. Oh no. The fancy work was fine but in our humble estimation the chicken pie was the "finest yet."

The meetings at Wiggle Creek have been postponed for a short time. The Farmer's Institute there and other arrangements made it seem advisable to begin a little later. Sermons by the pastor in Loup City church next Sunday. At 10:30 "Glorifying in the Cross." At 7:30 the postponed sermon

"Excuses." Sunday-school at 11:45. We think we have the liveliest school in Nebraska. You will think so too if you will come next Sunday. Epworth League for young folks and everybody a 4:30. Topic, "The conditions to Answered Prayers." Leader, Miss Klea McNulty. We will be glad to have you bring your family and friends to these services. Come to church next Sunday.

200 STEERS

If you have plenty of rough feed for cattle you will find no kind of stock more profitable than good quality two-years old steers like these. They are high grade, mostly Shorthorn types, and have good growthy frames and will make the man who buys them a good profit if sold off the grass next July. No cattle you can buy will pay better for the feed. They will eat or can be handled with less trouble or shelter, and remember they are ready for market earlier than any other class of cattle you can buy. For surest and largest profits buy two-year old steers. We will sell these cattle in bunches to suit purchasers and give time on them to responsible parties having sufficient feed and shelter to care for them.
