Would it not be a good idea for our school board to look after the trees on the proposed school site. These trees have already cost this district about a hundred dollars. The first cost of these trees were $55.00, under contract with A. L. Zimmerman who replaced all the dead trees after the first years. Then pipe was laid from the main of the city water work and $20 worth of rubber hose bought to irrigate with. The ditch water was used at another expense all of which was proper and which started the trees out in a flourishing condition. At present about two thirds of them are living and are being smothered by grass and weeds. A man with a sythe one day and about two days with the ditch water would not cost much and would be worth considerable to the district and add to the beauty of the grounds. Let's try the experiment. If they are neglected much longer the money here-to-fore spent will be all thrown away. The new school board should look after this while the water from the ditch can be had.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by Odendahl Bros.

SOLDIERS' RE-UNION.

The Old Soldiers State Reunion will be held at Lincoln on September 12 to 17 inclusive. A great gathering of the old scar-worn veterans is anticipated. The Spanish-American war crowned with American victory everywhere has filled all the people with a martial spirit and the old heroes are bubbling over with enthusiasm. Many of them would like to go again; more than 2,000 sons of veterans from Nebraska are now at the front and their parents and friends will meet once more and talk over and compare the late Civil War with the present struggle with a proud foreign nation that was once mistress of the seas. These Grand Army gatherings inspire the rising generations with patriotism and a love for the flag of this great republic. Hereafter there will be a blending of and a fraternal feeling between the old veterans of the North and South lands such as has not been since 1861. The committee expect a rate of one fare for the round trip. Let everybody get ready for the reunion. The big crops and the delightful summer make both farmers and merchants feel good.

Write to your friend in the East to meet you at the reunion at Lincoln September 12 1898.

For concessionary privileges and information write to L. C. Pace, of Lincoln, G. A. R. rooms, Burr block.

There never was a time since this state entered the union when its people could really afford a week of holiday better than this fall.

There are five thousand families in this state who have near relatives in the present war and the old soldiers hope to see them at the reunion this year as their sons and brothers who live to return may soon be members of the Grand Army.

President, W. R. Mellor, of the Sherman County Fair Association has, two days before the fair, issued the following insulting "proclamation" to its stockholders presumably realizing at the eleventh hour that the fair, under his management, bids fair to make a grand fizzle:

Loup City Neb. Sept. 5th 1898

Dear Sir:—You are a stockholder in the Fair Association, are you not? What are you doing to make this weeks fair a success? Are you preparing an exhibit? What are you doing to advertise it. Can you do anything to draw attention to the fair. Do not expect others to make this a good fair while you are sitting by idly, doing nothing but grunting about no interest being taken. This is your business as much as mine. Your salary is exactly the same as mine, therefore I shall expect you to do fully as much if not more toward making this fair a success as I do.

Very Truly Yours,
W. R. MELLOR, Pr.

He charges the stockholders with "sitting by idly and grunting about no interest being taken" when the facts are that they have been doing what they can under the circumstances to help it along. The plain fact is that neither the premium list or speed ring which was dictated by W. R. Mellor, offers any inducement to anyone to make exhibits or to enter in the races, and upon this the failure or success of a county fair depends. If Mr. Mellor wanted the assistance of the stockholders why did he not solicit it several weeks ago and not wait until two days before the fair and then in substance says to its stockholders quit your growling and help me to make a good job out of a bad one. But the fact is no one has been growling. The trouble is that Mr. Mellor is just beginning to see the tail end of his fizzle and he is trying to shift the responsibility on the shoulders of the stockholders.
