COUNTY TICKET.

For Representative.
LEWIS BECHTHOLD.

For County Attorney.
W. H. CONGER.

Vote for Lewis Bechthold and W. H. Conger this fall and see if you won't enjoy the change.

Many votes will testify to the fact this fall that W. H. Conger never allowed a man to go without a meal if he knew it.

Calamity has been like satan on the Mount. It has promised every thing and given nothing. Can you trust it any further. It has deceived you at every turn can it fool you again.

The Times like to broke, its neck last week trying to shield the governor against the charge of his administration having purchased $6,000 worth of Oleo., substitute for butter you know.

W. H. Conger has proved himself an able man in the halls of our state legislature, and an honorable, honest accommodating gentleman to all who he came in contact with. Prove your loyalty to the man whose hand is always open to the needy by voting for him.

The Times man yells, "Our money has disappeared." Well why don't the chump get a bump on himself and earn some more. He says, too, that nothing but free silver will increase the circulation. Perhaps that is true with the jass ack who never gets anything except by free donations.

Nations become great just to the degree that the hearts of their rulers are pure, and men develop the nature of their off-spring in exactly the same way. If we allow ourselves to only see the dark side of everything our children will imbibe the same spirit. If we see no good in anyone except he who looks through our lens, let us break the lens and borrow our neighbors to note the change. If we imagine that none are going to heaven except they who belong to our church, let us turn on the X ray and see if our own hearts may not be maseled. If we see a fellow being trudging along under a load that we could not lift and he has succeeded in reaching the top of the hill that we dared him to attempt to climb, and he then turns and in a self abnegating spirit extends to us a generous invitation to share with him the glory of his victories and we put the finger of scorn at him and say, you villain you staggered when you was half way up. Is there any honor due us, should we not ask the mountains to fall upon us and hide us from the eyes of the world that we might not see honest men point their fingers at us? Say fusionists is not that the exact position you have placed yourselves in? Have you too or enough left to acknowledge the fact or is the slough of despond your only glory?

Next Wednesday, Oct. 19, will be Lafayette day at all the schools in the United States. It was deemed fitting by the people of this great country that a monument costing $200,000 should be erected in Paris, to the memory of Lafayette who at the age of nineteen filled with the fire of liberty stole away from his own country with ten other young Frenchmen and landed on the shores of South Carolina to assist the struggling colonies in throwing off the yoke of Great Britain. The King of France, upon learning of his intentions gave orders to have him stopped, but so determined was this young champion of Liberty to assist mankind in their battle for freedom that he secretly went to Spain and embarked for America, and although pursued by both French and English cruisers managed to elude them and tender his services to Washington, with the request that he be allowed to serve at his own expense and as a volunteer. But Congress made him a major-general in the army of the United States one month before he was twenty years of age.

He served with great distinction throughout the war of the Revolution. He defeated the great Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, and compelled him to surrender on Oct. 19, 1777. Lord Cornwallis, although having boasted that the boy general could not escape him was forced to acknowledge defeat at his hands, and when resistance was no longer possible he expressed a desire to surrender to Lafayette, but Lafayette suggested that he hand his sword to General Lincoln, and while the ceremony was taking place he had his band play Yankee Doodle. When chided by others for the step he was about to take he said "I offer my service to that interesting republic from motives of the purest kind, the happiness of all mankind. She will become the safe and respected asylum of virtue, integrity, toleration, equality and tranquil happiness."

So let the rising generation next Wednesday contribute their mite that a monument may be unveiled at Paris on July 4, 1900 to commemorate the love the American people have for the "boy general" that defeated the great English general that they might be free. Long live the spirit of Lafayette in the hearts of the American people. And may every boy in the Loup City schools grow up to be a Lafayette.

Hon. Phil Bessor, the nominee on the republican ticket for senator of this senatorial district will be in the city soon. Mr. Bessor is at present a member of the board of Supervisors of Buffalo county, now serving his second term. He is one of the old settlers of Buffalo county and is very popular among his own people. Mr. Bessor is also an old soldier and has served his country in defence of the flag and the preservation of the Union. The Kearney papers of all political colors speak of him as a representative man and say that he will get a large vote in Buffalo county.

How could a man be an Indiana copperhead and a Jeff Davis sympathizer in 1863 and be an "Abe Lincoln Republican" in 1896.

Delicate Children

They do not complain of anything in particular. They eat enough, but keep thin and pale. They appear fairly well, but have no strength. You cannot say they are really sick, and so you call them delicate.

What can be done for them? Our answer is the same that the best physicians have been giving for a quarter of a century. Give them Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. It has most remarkable nourishing power. It gives color to the blood. It brings strength to the muscles. It adds power to the nerves. It means robust health and vigor. Even delicate infants rapidly gain in flesh if given a small amount three or four times each day.

SOUTH SIDE PUBLIC SQUARE.

Loup City, : Neb.

The wholly unexpected is continually happening to the hastily constructed breastworks of the confusion triple alliance. A thirteen-inch shell has just been aimed with precision at their strong bulwarks of mud and from al. reports coming in, it performed with deadly effect. It came at a time and from a source least expected. In their zeal to make a record of "economy" to be used as political capital for getting back in on, the sham "reformers" have far over reached. The state board has been feeding the blind, foolish and insane entrusted to their care at the various state institutions on the worst grade of oleomargarine, purchased of Phil Armour's grease factory down in Missouri, on the supposition of course, that these helpless and unfortunate wards would never know the difference, and it would be a great "saving" to place in the reform credit column of self-glorification. The campaign managers did not intend for this nasty wicked scheme to be uncovered until after election, but the real truth of the matter has come to light and has gone out over the state, creating a sensation, arousing a feeling of indignation among the people, without an equal in our state history. As this new chapter in hypocrisy's masquerade is read by the people of Nebraska a bitterness rankles in every breast that the siren song of reform and self-laudation can never assuage.
