The Best Plaster.
A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by Odendahl Bro's, Druggists.

CARD OF THANKS.
We most heartily thank the kind friends of Loup City who so willingly extended sympathy and help to us in our late affliction occasioned by the fatal accident to our beloved son Johnnie. Your kindness will be ever held in grateful remembrance.
MR. AND MRS. JOHN M. TAYLOR and Family.

About two weeks ago a cross tie was placed on the B. & M track about two and a half miles east of town, which came very near throwing the express in the ditch. The tie being on a sharp curve, was not seen until the engine was nearly on it. The pilot raised to the top of the tie and slid it along on the track until it caught fire. A detective was at once sent here to look the matter up and soon discovered that two children playing on the track and living near had thoughtlessly placed the tie on the track and went away and left it there.

A Narrow Escape.
Thankful words written by Mrs. E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my savior, determined if I could not stay with my friend on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Odendahl Bro's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Spain's Greatest Need.

All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by Odendahl Bro's, Druggists.

Herman Ohlson, the young son of Mr. Henry Ohlson, met with a painful mishap at school last Friday. The boys at school are practicing archery now days and an arrow struck him in the corner of the eye and made a very painful wound. Had it struck a quarter of an inch farther toward the ball of the eye it would have destroyed the eye entirely. It would seem that our boys are getting a little to careless and rough in their play. Wouldn't it be better for our teachers to use a little more restraint before some one is crippled.

From New Zealand.
REKFTON, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1898.
I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicine the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

JOHNNIE TAYLOR LAID TO REST.
The funeral of Johnnie Taylor was held at the M. E. Church in this city last Friday at 3:00 p. m. and was attended by a large concourse of people. As Johnnie was raised from a small boy of four years of age in this community, and had, by his quiet demeanor and kind and considerate ways, endeared himself to all our people. Every one that could, turned out to be present at the last sad scenes of his laying to rest. The ceremony was opened by the choir singing a beautiful and appropriate hymn, after which a very able and touching sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Matthews, from the 2nd Kings, 18, 33: The minister dwelt largely on the pure life led by the young man and urged the young people to take it as an example for their every day walks, that, like him who was gone, their mother should never need to worry over the conduct of her boy. After the services a long line of carriages followed the remains to their last resting place in Evergreen cemetery. The Epworth League had very considerately lined the grave with white cloth and covered the edge with sprigs of evergreen, which was a mark of esteem to one of their members that will ever be remembered by his grief stricken parents and brothers and sisters.

John M. Taylor jr. was born at Arlington, N. J., on the tenth day of June 1875, and was at the time of the sad accident which terminated his life, twenty-three years four months and twenty-four days old. He came to Loup City in March 1879, and has resided here with his parents ever since, but had during short periods, as was the case when he was killed, worked in different parts of the state. He, by some means not exactly known, as there was no one with him at the time, fell from the top of the elevator upon which he was working, at Elkhorn, Neb., at about 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday Nov. 1, 1898. His father was summoned from Valley, eight miles away where he was working and immediately took the boy to Clarkson Hospital, Omaha, for medical aid, reaching there at 12:30, and he died at 5:30 of the same day.

All Eyes Turned to Lincoln.
The Omaha exposition has closed and all eyes are now turned toward Lincoln the capital city where the legislature will soon meet. The instillation of new state officers, the election of a United States senator, and other matters of much importance will make Lincoln the center of state interests and every Nebraskan will want to read the old, reliable standby, The State Journal, during the coming year. As a special inducement to secure new readers, The Semi-Weekly Journal, printed every Tuesday and Friday, will be mailed from now until January 1, 1900, for $1.00. This is a mighty long time for the money and the sooner you send your dollar the more papers you get. There isn't any other paper in Nebraska that gives so much for the money. It is twice as good as the old fashioned weekly. Try it. Address, The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours: a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or sad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents or one dollar.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, if you send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure and mention that you read this generous offer in the LOUP CITY NORTHWESTERN.

A Sure Sign of Croup
Horseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.
