my dry goods. If you will see my Goods and learn my Prices they will sell themselves.

BOOTS AND SHOES

My boot and shoe stock must be sold and I will make prices on them that will sell them. It is impossible to give you prices. You must see the goods to appreciate their value.

HATS AND CAPS.

I have a large stock of men's and boy's hats which I will close out at 50 cents on the dollar.

STONEWARE, QUEENSWARE AND GLASSWARE

All these goods will be sold at a Slaughtering Reduction—AS THEY MUST GO. No other merchant CAN meet my prices.

- Milk crocks and pans, per gal. 7 cents
- Stone churns, per gal. 7 "
- Chambers with covers, 30, 50 and 60 cents.

All other goods in proportion. We want to close out our stock as soon as possible and invite you to come and get first choice.

Respectfully yours,

T. L. PILGER.

As long as you can see the stars and stripes waive over Pilger's store, so long Piger has got goods to sell, and Pilger will give you bargains that no other merchants can meet.

On account of the quality and high prices of apples this year Pilger has reduced the price of all standard canned goods so that you can use them for sauce, pies, etc. See his prices on all canned goods.

PILGER
WANTS YOUR TRADE.

FOR LADIES ONLY.--On account of retiring from the Mercantile business I shall turn over the agency for the Butterick Patterns to J. Phil Jaeger after January 1st, 1899 where you will find fashion sheet commencing with January number.-T. L. PILGER
