Mr. Thompson received the above nomination from his democratic admirers when he made the race for congress in 1890.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption.--Odendahl Bros. A messenger came to town Tuesday morning a'way for the sheriff to go to the home of C. H. King to bring to the county seat his son Fred, who had agala become deranged and had to be taken in charge. It is said that the young man is so troubled especially it is said at this time as he was married to a young wife only 36 hours previous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure thoroughly digests food without aid from the stomach, and at the same time heals and restores the diseased digestive organs. It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. The boy Wheeler who was before the court for attempted rape, was given a reform-school sentence. While most of our citizens believe this to be a case of mistaken identity, yet the sending of the boy to the reform school will be a blessing to him, so he has been brought up in ignorance and cannot write his name. He appears to be a boy with considerable talent, ability, and a couple of years at that institution will make a man of him that otherwise would not have been.

William Benschoter died at his home near Falls City, last Tuesday morning at 10:00 a. m. Mr. Benschoter is the father of the senior editor of this paper, Mr. Geo. W. Benschoter, also of Orlando and Jacob Benschoter of this city. He was born in Genoa county Ohio, in 1823, and was at the time of his death 76 years 3 months and 25 days old. He came to Nebraska from Iowa in 1873 and was one of the founders of Loup City. Mr. Benschoter was known among us as Uncle Billy, and his kind, loving and gentle disposition made him a great many fast friends. He died a natural death and was buried in the cemetery here. He leaves a wife and five sons to mourn his taking away. He will be interred in Evergreen cemetery, in this city, where his last sleep will be among the scenes which he helped to shape from a virgin prairie.

On account of a lack of knowledge on the part of the Jr. editor of this paper, of the history of the deceased a more extended obituary will appear in the next issue. MARRIED--Mr. Fred King and Miss Anna M. Lohse were joined in marriage last Saturday evening by Judge Kay at the residence of John Travis in this city. LOOK HERE!

On last Saturday morning the fog hung heavy over the earth, so that none could see far from them. Just like some watch repairers who can't see very far into the facts of repairing a watch, but just tinker it up so as to get their patrons' money, and say that he will guarantee it for one year to run, but has to tinker at it for six months out of the year to induce it to do so. We do no "Cheap John" work. Our work is first class and we expect it to run more than a year in our customers' pocket, and keep good time as well. Our prices are very reasonable, call and see us. If our work fails to please you we will refund your money.--Yours for business, G. H. MORGAN, Loup City's up to date Jeweler. Can be found at Henry DOLLINGS Shoe Store.

Just saved His Life. It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis of Bowerton, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of Consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote: "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Such wonderful cures have for 25 years, proven it's power to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Odendahl Bros. drug store.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP. Twenty Two Years' Constant Use without a Failure. The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. It Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record--twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Odendahl Bros., druggist.

Fetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema. The itching and smarting tendency to these diseases, is instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. An editor prints his paper to give his patrons the news of the day and for the money there is in it. He presumes to know of what he writes and he generally does. When he writes as he does in the Leader Courier, Osceola, Miss. Pa., without fear or hope of reward, that "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts magically, and we have found none better in our household. If you have a cough try it." It may be accepted as an honest expression, worthy of credence. For sale by Odendahl Bros.
