 Master Theodore Pilger came into our office last Tuesday and in casting around spied the illustrated Bee and on the title page discovered an interesting paragraph it contained the date of the first Thanksgiving proclamation. Master Theodore remarked "I guess 'll make a note of that if you will lend me a pencil, please." We handed him the pencil and asked what he wanted of that. His reply was "the teacher might ask me about it and I want to be ready for him." Now this is only a small incident but it means a great deal after all. It is conclusive evidence that the boys of a progressive mind and wished to be up to date in all his studies.  Judge Hunter, of this city has made application to Gov. Deitrich elect for the position of superintending the soldiers home at Grand Island. The NORTHWESTERN recommends Mr. Hunter for the position. We believe no better selection could possibly be made. He is a man of ability, honesty and integrity. He has filled many positions of trust during his long residence among us. He has been financier of several different lodges and has handled large sums of money amounting to thousands of dollars every year, and has always given the best of satisfaction, in fact no desire has ever been manifested to get another to take his place so long as he can be persuaded to lend his services. He is an old soldier and for many years past has been a member of the soldiers relief committee of this county. He is an active member of Shiloh Post of this city and has always been identified with G. A. R. work both at home and abroad. Mr Hunter should be appointed.

OBITUARY.
 John R. Baker was born in North Hampton, Fulton Co. N. Y. Feb 25 1812, and died at the home of his son, near Ashton Neb. Nov 22, 1900.
 In 1836 he married Harriet A. Foot and in the following year, they went west, locating in Kane Co, Illinois, where were born to them 13 children.
 In 1873 the deceased immigrated to Sherman Co. Nebraska where he was early identified with the interests of this young and growing state. He was well known by the old settlers as an earnest worker in all kinds of reform.
 He became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church in 1831, living a constant christian life for 69 years, the last few years being spent in the Ashton Presbyterian church, of which he was a member. He took a great interest in church work, helped by his means and council to establish churches and Sunday schools, giving his time and money to help hold up the cause of Christ. He had a sublime and perfect faith in Christ, and although he lost his beloved companion three years ago it seemed to be joy to him as he spoke of meeting her in the not far distant.
 The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church of Ashton, conducted by his pastor Mr. Rev. Louis E. Hamphry, preaching the sermon from Phil. 1—21, "For me to live in Christ and to die is gain."
 The remains were interred in the Ashton cemetery by the side of his companion. His death was grand and we can truly say of him, he lived a christian life.
 The members of the family who remain to mourn his loss are: Mary A. Holister of Litchfield, Eta. B. Brownell, St. Charles, Ill. Hattie Letemen, Stirling, Ill., Mrs. Pearsons Hastings, Neb., James Baker, C. J. Baker, and Ben and Wm. Baker who reside on the old farm on Oak Creek. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow and loneliness.
CARD OF THANKS.
 We the sons and daughters of John R. Baker, wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted in the burial of our beloved father.
 W. A. BAKER and BROTHERS AND SISTERS.
MARRIED—Louis Bechtold and Miss Cordelia A. Cording were united in marriage at the home of the brides parents, on the evening of November 27, 1900, Judge Anglet officiating. There were about sixty invited guests present on the occasion and after the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served which was followed by a dance and a good social time.
 Mr. Bechtold is one of our industrious young men and at present occupies the position of section for man on the U. P. line between Loup City and Rockville. The bride is an accomplished lady and has a host of friends. They start out in life with the best wishes of all.
 The following is from the Hickory Ridge Missourian (Democratic): Floored!
 Swatted on the gob!
 Knocked out in the second round!
 McKinley and the fall dinner pail got there!
 Gosh! Didn't they paste it to us everlastingly!
 'Twasn't our fault, though. Hickory Ridge done noble.
 Bryan said he was bound to win, and we bet on his judgment.
 And it cost us the best squirrel dog in the whole state, by jocks!
 As we go to press the news is that everything has gone republican except h—l and Texas.
 For president in 1904 Andrew Jackson of Tennessee. We've got to get back to the old landmarks or we're wiped out.
 We acknowledge a serenade by the Republican Marching club with a brass band last night. It was darned poor music, but we suppose it was the best they could do. Thanks.
 We are in favor of reorganizing the democratic party or abolishing the whole shooting match. When it's got so that we haven't any principles of our own, and have to take them second-hand from a lot of Kansas and Nebraska cranks and granddaddy long-legs with yellow hair and their pants in their boots, who don't know anything but free silver and calamity hooting, it's time, by jingo, to call a new deal! We're tired of holding the sack for the republican snipe hunters. It's going to be a blamed long, cold winter for us this year. Wood, coal and corncocks wanted on subscription, and wanted right now.

Ye senior editor and family enjoyed a very sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baillie and the day was spent very pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. Baillie had arranged to give a dinner on that day to those of their relatives who could make it convenient to be present and accordingly Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nightingale and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fisher and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gouley and daughter Georgia, also Rev. Baillie of Westerville and Mr. Shetler of Clear Creek were among those in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Baillie are to be complimented on the excellent dinner prepared and the royal manner in which they entertained their many guests.

 Don't beat, kick, swear at and abuse that little calf you are trying to learn to drink. Just stop and think how much you would have known about drinking if some big, rough fellow had straddled your neck grasped an ear in each hand and jambed your nose into milk up to your eyes when you were two days old. Don't expect your calf to be a brighter animal than yourself.—Farm Journal.
 Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. Odendahl Bros.
 S. C. Bruce lost two head of horses a few days ago, presumably from the same cause as that which has killed so many cattle. When he went to look after his horses he found them all more or less effected and thinks that he would have lost them all if he had not taken them out of the stalks. We learn that other men say that their horses have also been made sick by the corn stalks.—Ord Quiz.

Astigmatism!

Astigmatism is not a disease but is simply a defect in the shape of the eye ball. It necessitates an irregular strain upon the muscles in adjusting for different objects. There is no condition which causes so much discomfort and fatigue, Especially Head Aches

A peculiar feature about astigmatism is that people who have it seldom know that anything is wrong with their eyes. They lay all their suffering to some other cause. They believe that they can see as well as any one and in a good many cases they can. The overwork is going on just the same.

If any one thinks their eyes are not right come in and see me. I am the only optician in this part of the country that can correct astigmatism. Eyes tested free.
