HOUSE.-During the merning session of the house on the 8th forty-one bills were introduced, and in the afternoon seven more were added. Mr. Ollis, fusionist of Valley, moved that all appointments made by the employes committee to be submitted to the house for approval or rejection. It was defeated by a strict party vote, as was also a similar motion requiring the submission of appointments made by the speaker. Among the bills introduced the most important provide for reapportioning the senatorial and legislative districts of the state, by Evans of Lincoln, free high school attendance, by Mockett of Lancaster; a different election ballot, by Humphrey, and making kidnaping punishby imprisonment for twenty years and a fine of $20,000, either or both, at the discretion of the court, of Lancaster. The new election ballot proposed by Representative Humphrey is said to be similar to the one used in Iowa and Illinois. It would contain the names of all candidates of one party in one column, with a place at the top for a straight ticket vote. Representative Fowler introduced a bill propass a constitutional amendment.

SENATE.—The senate session on the 11th was a strictly business meet- ter vii, title "Attorneys," subtitle ing and during two hours a considerable amount of routine work was accomplished, a number of the members being anxious to get through with the work in order that they might leave for their homes on the afternoon trains. The introduction of bills was proceeded with. During the reading of bills the clerk of the house was announced, who stated that house rolls 11 and 13, both being appropriation bills, were ready for the senate. The bills were read and placed on file.
