The old cry of the office seeking the man is sometimes carried far ther than populistic ideas would have it. Such seems to be the case with our two U. S. senators.

Nebraska has two United States senators and they are both Republicans. Something that has not been for a decade. Let us rejoice and be glad for the day of deliverance is at hand.

All executions of criminals hereafter in the state of Nebraska will take place within the enclosure at the State Penttentiary and the warden will be the executioner according to the law just passed.

The Ransom kidnapping bill was passed during the last hours of the session. The last provision of the act where the kidnapping is followed by threats of bodily injury for the purpose of forcing a ransom is made a capital offense and is punishable by death.

Gov. Dietrichs will not resign his position until late in the fall according to rumors. He says he has a state policy mapped out that he desires to make effective before he resigns. When he is inducted into the office of U.S. Senator in December next he will have the snug little sum of $4.500 due and ready to be drawn, as his salary commenced on the 4th day of last month,

That peace will soon be established in the Philippines is thought to be a foregone conclusion at present. Aguinaldo, the chief agitator is in our hands and expresses a desire and willingness to promote peace and good will between the Tagalo and the Yankee. Insurgent officers and men are surrendering and handing over their arms every day, and the administration is confident that a much less army will be needed there from this on.

It contains a number of special articles each week by the most competent specialists in every branch of agriculture--departments devoted to live stock, crops, the dairy, poultry yard, orchard and garden, farm machinery, veterinary topics, and the markets.

The farmer's wife, too, has her share of space, with recipes and suggestions on cookery, dressmaking, fancy work, care of flowers, and matters particularly pleasing to her, while the children have a department edited for them exclusively. Four or five pages are devoted to a complete review of the news of the week, cavering both happenings at nome and abroad, and news in particular interesting to the great farming west. Then, too, are the stories, choice poetry and humor, and all the good things that one likes to read after the lamps are lighted and the days work is done
