JONES SAVED $50.00

JONES owed one of our merchants fifty dollars. He gave said business man his check for the amount. The business man forgot to give him credit and the next month presented Jones with a bill for $50.00. "I have paid that bill," said Jones, "and there is the check, endorsed by you." That settled it

SMITH LOST $50.00

SMITH owed one of our merchants fifty dollars, and paid it in cash. A month later he was presented with the same bill, and though he was certain he had paid it, he had no proofs and paid again. Be like Jones and pay your bills by checks on our bank, and you will never have to pay a bill twice.

It looks as if the Loup City Merc. Co. were going to sell every man a SUIT in the country for spring.

Chas. Schwaderer returned from his trip to Texas last Thursday. Charlie tells us he purchased a 120-acre tract in the Rio Grande country, of which W. D. Zimmerman is agent. He expects to move down there in the near future. As we understand it, there are a number of German citizens buying and going to buy in and around where Charlie has his land and make it a German community. What a time the boys will have there with their reunion of old Loup Cityans each year.

Reports Roads in Very Bad Shape

A. Spelts was down from his place last Saturday and says up at the head of Dead Horse he saw at least three autos stuck in the bad roads. Mr. Spelts says if the Commercial Club wants Loup City to get the big trade from that way and earn the eternal gratitude of those patrons of the county seat for the love of Moses look after the horrid condition of the roads up at the head of Dead Horse. No one not acquainted with the conditions could for a moment appreciate them. We tried to get Mr. Spelts to write of them, but he said just tell the people that they could not be worse and sign my name to what you say. From that we should glean that the roads are not just as smooth and nice as a city boulevard. But candidly will not the Commercial Club take cognizance of the above and see if the conditions may not be bettered?

M. E. Choir Shown Pleasant Time

The M. E. Choir were entertained in a most hospitable manner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Tracy, Friday evening. After the usual practice several guessing contests were held with forfeits paid by the losing sides. Then came a very dainty luncheon with a pro and con discussion of the Texas fever, which seemed to be raging. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. L. V. Slocum, Mr. J. W. Long, Mr. L. N. Smith, Mrs. R. P. Starr, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Misses Edith Smith, Nettie Southwell, Nettie Mead and Merce Outhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Steen.

Notice of Sheriff's Sale of Real Estate.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale to me directed from the District Court of Sherman County Nebraska, upon the decree of foreclosure rendered in said court on the 17th day of December, 1912, in the consolidated action wherein the cause wherein Solomon P. Farhat was plaintiff and John Farrah, Salline Farrah, Abdallah Ayoub, Anissie Ayoub, the unknown heirs of Frank Kwiatkowski deceased, Tekla Polski, Edward G. Taylor, J. D. Lau, Noyes-Norman Shoe Company and Nebraska Mercantile Company were defendants, was consolidated with the cause wherein Solomon P. Farhat was plaintiff, and Ed. Farhat, Rossie Farrah, Abdallah Ayoub, Anissie Ayoub, John Farrah, Salline Farrah, Edward G. Taylor, J. D. Lau, Noyes-Norman Shoe company, Nebraska Mercantile Company and Tekla Polski were defendants. I have levied upon Lot Seven, Lot Eight, and Lot Nine in Block Nine, and Lot One in Block Twelve, all in the original Town, now Village, of Ashton, situated in Sherman County Nebraska; and I will on the 27th day of January, 1914, at two o'clock p. m. of said day at the south door of the Court House in Loup City, Sherman County, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell the above described real estate at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy the several amounts found due the plaintiff, to-wit: the sum of $1230.47 and $783.03, with interest from date of decree at seven per cent per annum, and the amount found due the cross-petitioner, Tekla Polski, in the sum of $652.85, and the amount found due the cross-petitioner, Edward G. Taylor, in the sum of $267.00, and the amount found due the cross-petitioner, J. D. Lau, in the sum of $573.69 with interest at ten per cent per annum, on said last mentioned sums from date of said decree, and costs of said action and accruing costs, and which several amounts were adjudged to be due the plaintiff and said cross-petitioner from the defendants, John Farrah, Salline Farrah, Abdallah Ayoub, Anissie Ayoub, Ed Farrah and Rossie Farrah, and to be liens on the above described premises. Dated at Loup City, Nebraska this 23rd day of December, 1913. L. A. WILLIAMS, Sheriff of Sherman County Nebraska. R. J. Nightingale & Son, Plaintiffs, attorneys.
